COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1921 — 124th of the General Assembly

Vol. 6. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1921. No. 49.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 20, 1921.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (F. E. Baldwin), in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Acting Chaplain, Rev. J. T. Davis, offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, O God, for the sunlight that speaks to all the beauties of nature, and bids them sing songs of praise to Thy Holy name. We thank Thee for the great Commonwealth of which we are a part with its mighty forests, its fertilizing streams its vast industrial resources. Help us to appreciate their worth and place in our midst. May we be brought to realize that all that we are, have and hope to be is from Thee. May we lift our voices unto Thee in praise and thanksgiving. May we open our hearts in gratitude for these wonderful tokens of Thy love and concern towards us, and we pray today that as the great problems of state that affect all the people of the State come to our attention, may we deal with them as men unmoved by political influence or power, but realizing that in all that we do and say, and the manner in which we act we will have to give an account unto Thee. Therefore, bless the law making bodies of this State, bless those who are in authority to execute the laws and may they all be for justice, uprightness aid the development of the great Commonwealth of which we are a part. Then we shall be doing and acting the principles of our Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. McCONNELL, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal approved.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 605, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the valuation and assessment in counties of the second class of all property of every kind and description, and all occupations, taxable for county, city, school, borough and township purposes; creating a County Assessment Board for that purpose; providing for the payment of the entire expense thereof by such counties; prescribing the duties of the several county officers in respect thereto; and abolishing all existing offices, boards or departments having to do with the valuation and assessment of such taxable property in such counties, cities, school districts, boroughs and townships.

be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, these two bills were before the Committee on Municipal Affairs and we had a hearing yesterday a week ago. I received no notice of any meeting of the Committee on Municipal Affairs to take action on these bills since that time. There was no action taken at that time, therefore I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. VARE, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Vare whether a meeting has been called by him and notice given to the members of the Committee to take action on these two bills.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, there has been no committee meeting since yesterday a week ago, when there were only two or three members present after the meeting on the civil rights bill here that busy afternoon. Senator Barr spoke to me and I told him I could not put the bills out without a meeting, and he took the bills and got a majority of the members of the committee to agree to report the bills out and if there is any dispute about it I do not want to turn any sharp corners on the floor of this Senate or the Committee room either. I have absolutely no interest in the bills, and if it is not satisfactory to all who are concerned I shall vote to have the bills go back to the committee from which they came, and will hold a meeting later in the afternoon. I want it fully understood that there has been no sharp corner turned on this bill. No one, that I know, has any interest in the bill but Senator Barr. He took the bills and had a majority of the committee sign to bring them out, otherwise they would not be out. I do not want any member of this Senate to feel that any improper motive or practice has been put over on him and I, therefore, trust that the bills will be recommitted.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to call to the attention of the Senate that these bills were introduced by me on March 21, 1921. The Committee on Judiciary General reported them as committed on March 30, they were read the first time on March 30, and were re-committed to the Committee on Municipal Affairs. Now the bills have been in this committee ever since and a hearing was held and the bills were dragged along, and I want what was requested here yesterday for the colored man, a square deal. If my bills are to be juggled in the committee and killed that is one thing; if they are to be put out on the floor and killed that is another thing. I understand that not only on the part of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, but from forces in the Senate very powerful that a poll was made against these bills. No consideration was taken of the people of Allegheny, that there was a board in the city of Pittsburgh, and one board that is sitting now in the county of Allegheny, acting in an unconstitutional manner, in the opinion of one of the best minds on municipal law in Allegheny county. It is an elective board and not an appointed board and they are acting there by sufferance. The same work that is done by the county board of Allegheny is being done by the city board of the city of Pittsburgh and it is costing them one thousand dollars to do the duplication of the work that is done by the boards of county assessors and tax revision. In addition to that they have another board at McKeesport and one board at Duquesne.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare, will state his point of order.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, my point is, we are not considering the merits of this bill, we are considering how they came on the floor, and whether they ought to be here or not. I want to further state, that there has been no pole of the Senate taken either in the committee or outside of the committee on these bills, and it is unfair for Mr. Barr to say that, for he knows that it is not true or correct.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair decides that the point of order is well taken.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, will the Senator be good enough to repeat that there has been no action taken.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lehigh, Mr.

Schantz, will state his point of order.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, my point of order is that there is nothing in order but an appeal from the action of the Chair.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, it is not a matter of appealing from the decision of the Chair. It is a motion to recommit and I am talking on that motion that it is unfair and I am in order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, will be in order as long as he confines his remarks to the question.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am in order and I can talk on the recommittal of these bills, not on the bill itself, but on the history of the bills. The Senator must be fair enough to admit that and the Chair will be. Mr. President, the proposition is that these bills had a hearing in committee, and there is no reason now for the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, to ask to have these bills recommitted, when a hearing has been held at his request, and the men that he brought here, every one of them, were office holders. Not one single tax payer appealed to that Committee to kill the bill in the Senate, or in the Committee, or any other place, but the man who appeared in the committee for these bills was not only a representative of the Legislative Committee of the Real Estate Board of the city of Pittsburgh, but he produced petition after petition and he produced everything that answered the objection of the Senator from Allegheny in a fair and square manner. Now then, if the bill is going to be killed I ask a fair and square deal on the part of this Senate that Senator Eyre asked for yesterday, and Senator Vare asked for yesterday, that if you are going to kill them on the floor of this Senate and kill them in the open. I am entitled to that courtesy from service, and for the friendship that I bear to the men in this Senate. I am not arguing this bill from the standpoint of anything personal, or anything with reference to the office holders of the city of Pittsburgh, or the county of Allegheny, I am not arguing anything except for the people of Pittsburgh, and for the county of Allegheny in toto, and I ask that the economic principle asked for on the floor of this Senate in regard to State finances, that has been asked for by Harding in the National Government, economy in government service. That is my argument and I am asking it, gentlemen of the Senate, with all the fairness of one man to another. There is absolutely nothing in these bills but what is right. You are doing away with three boards, and putting in one board. It is true that there are going to be a lot of men losing jobs. There is a man who is at the head of the Tax Board of the city of Pittsburgh who is a big man, and he is fit to head a new board. That is how much politics there is in it for me. I do not belong to the same wing, I am arguing gentlemen for a square deal. It makes no difference to me whether you kill these bills, I have no personal interest in it. I am not only representing the Real Estate Board of the city of Pittsburgh, but the League of Boroughs and Townships of Allegheny County that consists of seventy-two boroughs and fifty townships and has one-half of the assessed valuation of the county of Allegheny, practically, and pay practically one-half of the taxes, besides the people of the city of Pittsburgh. The constitutionality of the act is a matter for the Supreme Court and not for the Legislature. Now, gentlemen, as a matter of fairness to a fellow Senator, I ask you not to recommit these bills. I ask you, if you are going to kill them, kill them on the floor of the Senate. I have never appeared in any way except facing battle or facing the enemy in fighting for a square deal. I never cheated any man in the Senate or out, and I never will, and I say again that I am asking for the passage of these bills on an economic basis. It is not a personality between the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, and myself, but it is a matter that I am appealing for for the people of Allegheny county. Give me a square deal and I will give you a square deal.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, my colleague, I have no doubt, is sincere in every word he said. He means well, his intentions are good but these two bills in the question of fundamental principles of Government are of a character that touches the method of government. First, it is an assessment of taxable property to arrange for the millage levied to collect taxes to run government. The two bodies are separate and distinct and are not co-ordinate and cannot be made to co-ordinate together. It is necessary to put it effectualy into operation to go back as far as 1834, and repeal legislation that cannot be repealed, you will have to go further than that and change the charter of the city of Pittsburgh. The question of economy cannot be determined if it is put into operation. I have discussed the question of taxation with the Senator and he says sixty-three per cent. the city of Pittsburgh pays and that would be thirty-seven per cent. for the county. My knowledge is it would run over seventy per cent. That is a little difference, and that does not enter into this discussion. This bill was considered last Tuesday afternoon and it will be admitted by every member who attended the meeting that it did not have a fair consideration from either side. We were crowded after the hearing on the equal rights bill, engagements were made by the Senators and members of the commitees and they were leaving the meetings to fill engagements. One man spoke representing the city of Pittsburgh, the county commissioners of Allegheny County were represented by its chairman, and he had opportunity to speak, one of the solicitors of the county had an opportunity to say a few words. On behalf of these proponents of the bill Mr. Samuel Black, a most reputable citizen of the city of Pittsburgh spoke for the bill. His interest and pur- Pittsburgh endorse it. For some reason I do not know why, possibly after they investigated the legislation, they held another meeting and rescinded their action. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I can bring the best minds the largest operators of real estate and most potent influences in both the government of the city and county that oppose this legislation. It is not practicable and cannot be made operative, and further than that this is the triennial assessment of the city of Pittsburgh in the county of Allegheny this year. One of these acts provides for an elective board, a new board. If the new board is not composed of the very same men as are now on the board, it will cause confusion trouble and litigation to a degree no man can anticipate. The county has a right, to levy and collect certain taxes and the city has a right to levy and collect certain taxes. The city has a right to assess and collect taxes on properties and the county has the right. The county board collects State taxes, and makes assessment for the State and turns them over to the State after collection. This legislation in its vital parts is a ripper bill to rip out two of the most fundamental boards, without notification and without opportunity to prove that legislation should not be passed. I am as well satisfied as I am that I am living that after scrutiny by the Attorney General's Office he would never allow such legislation to be put into effect. I stand by my knowledge of municipal and county government and, therefore, I want an opportunity to speak to the committee, I have made no canvass on this question at all, but I spoke to a few friends today. I was not in the Senate yesterday when the bills passed second reading. This means much to the city of Pittsburgh and the county of Allegheny, with one billion four hundred million taxable property, and there has never been a man who came here or any other place and said a word derogatory to the qualifications and the ability of the men who attend to these duties.

Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, one word more. I want exactly what is fair, and I have always been fair myself to my fellow members of this Senate, and this legislation should not pass, but if it does pass it should not be taken away from a committee that has not had an opportunity to pass upon it in its function as a committee. Therefore, I appeal to you men, let this committee decide, whether it be this afternoon or this noon, when Senator Vare calls the committee together, as to what disposition they want to make. Do not say we strangled anything. If you say that ninety hundred and ninety-nine percent. of the legislation would be in the same position, and therefore, I again appeal that if I am a representative of Pittsburgh I want to represent it, and I claim I can represent its government, but I don't want to be gumshoeing around and soliciting personally the members of the committee. I will fight in the open, whether in committee or on the floor, and therefore, I will be prepared at the committee meeting if the Senators see fit to give me a hearing before the Committee, where it belongs.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, before you pass on these bills I want to say a word further to make a clear explanation as to how these bills got out. I refused to report the bills out for Senator Barr, because there were only three members of the committee present, on account of the entertainment over in Carlisle that afternoon. He then took the bills around and got a majority of the signatures and on the strength of that majority of signatures I reported the bills out as committed. It does not make the slightest difference to me what action is taken on the bills. As a matter of fact, I am pledged to vote for the bills for the last six weeks. So I hope the Senate will bear in mind that there has been no sharp corner turned in the matter, otherwise I care nothing whatever about it.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I live a good way from Pittsburgh, and I do not wish to be considered as intermeddling in Pittsburgh matters. This situation that has arisen is a good bit like the situation that arose with me a few nights ago, and it seems to me that the situation is very similar in that a bill has been passed out of committee over the objection of a committee without a regular meeting, and the situation was solved very satisfactorily the other night by the Senate recalling a meeting of that committe and considering the bill right then and there, and for that reason I move that the Senate do now take a recess of ten minutes for the purpose of considering the bills right then and there, and with that end in view I move to amend that the Senate do now take a recess of ten minutes, in order that this committee may meet to consider the bill.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that these bills are not in committee, and if that motion should prevail the bills would not be in the Committee on Municipal Affairs, they would still be on the calendar.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in view of that I withdraw the amendment.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have no objection, all that I ask for is a square deal, and if I am going to be whipped I want to be whipped in the open. That is the only thing that I request. Whatever method is pursued, whatever machinery is used, is immaterial to me. It is simply a matter of the method that will be satisfactory to Senator Vare and that will be satisfactory to me as long as I get action. That is what I ask for.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I do not like to hear the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, say he wants a square deal, and to be whipped in the open. Whatever irregularity there was about these bills was done in his interest, and he ought not to say that.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I may be unfortunate in the use of my language, I beg the Senator's pardon.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 606, on third reading, entitled:

Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class," approved March 7, 1921 (P. L. 20), providing for the abolition of the Department of Assessors now existing in such cities; providing that the valuations and assessments of property therein taxable for city purposes shall be the valuations and assessments placed thereon by county officers for county purposes, and that all future taxes for city purposes shall be levied and assessed against such property based upon the valuations and assessments placed thereon for taxation for county purposes.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 741, entitled:

A joint resolution authorizing the Governor to appoint a commission to inquire into a plan for the reorganization of the State government and making an appropriation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I simply want to say in explanation of this bill, that it is an appropriation limited to five thousand dollars for a commission of seven persons, two from the Senate, two from the House and three to be appointed by the Governor; that I have interviewed the Governor and he told me to go ahead with it, he is sympathetic to this, I know of no opposition. Yoo all know that there was a very comprehensive report made here several years ago by a commission, of which Mr. McDevitt was the head, and this is a supplemental procedure. I hope the Senate will do me the compliment of passing this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 605, on third reading, entitled:

An act providing for the valuation and assessment in counties of the second class of all property of every kind and description and all occupations taxable for county city school borough and township purposes creating a County Assessment Board for that purpose providing for the payment of the entire expense thereof by such counties prescribing the duties of the several county officers in respect thereto and abolishing all existing offices boards or departments having to do with the valuation and assessment of such taxable property in such counties cities school districts boroughs and townships

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 605, entitled:

An Act providing for the valuation and assessment in counties of the second class of all property of every kind and description and all occupations taxable for county city school borough and township purposes creating a County Assessment Board for that purpose providing for the payment of the entire expense thereof by such counties prescribing the duties of the several county officers in respect thereto and abolishing all existing offices boards or departments having to do with the valuation and assessment of such taxable property in such counties cities school districts boroughs and townships

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I hardly think it is necessary to discuss this particular bill and the companion bill, No. 606, after the discussion that occurred today on the matter of its being put out on the calendar, with the exception that I made the statement this afternoon that I wished to convey to the members of the Senate some information, so that they will have an understanding as to the kind and character of the legislation we are now considering. Not to debate the merits or demerits of the past action, there was not sufficient opportunity for the proper officials connected with the city of Pittsburgh and the county of Allegheny to lay before the committee on Municipal Affairs the defects of this legislation, and what it would mean if put into operation. I also this afternoon stated as to the opposition in connection with these acts, that they did not provide in any way, manner, shape or form to comply with the constitutional provision of legislation which abolishes offices that are created by the acts of Assembly without providing for the proper repealing of the acts creating those offices. The bills to be made an act, No. 605, in its title, provides:

"Providing for the valuation and assessment in counties of the second class of all property of every kind and description and all occupations taxable for county city school borough and township purposes creating a County Assessment Board for that purpose providing for the payment of the entire expense thereof by such counties prescribing the duties of the several county officers in respect thereto and abolishing all existing offices boards or departments having to do with the valuation and assessment of such taxable property in such counties cities school districts boroughs and townships."

This act provides for the consolidation of what is known as the Board of Assessors, along with what is known as the County Board of Revision of Taxes. The act itself has made no provision for repealing the act putting those boards into existence and having no repealing clause in the act. I wish to read you the constitutional provision which provides for such legislation as this, that consolidates and abolishes any office without having the laws which created it properly repealed in the act which abolishes them. Section 6 of Article 3 of the constitution provides that no law shall be revised, amended or the provision thereof extended or conferred by reference to its title only, but so much thereof as is revised, amended, extended or conferred, shall be re-enacted and published at length. Every lawyer and practically every layman member of this body knows of this constitutional provision and knows the reading thereof. Therefor, I ask you to refer to your files, and show in the act where there is a single repealer of a single act that created the Board of Assessors in the city of Pittsburgh or the county of Allegheny. This Bill necessarily repeals the act of January 4, 1859, Pennsylvania Laws 828, and carries with it a repeal of the Acts of 1834 and 1844, the Act of 1901. Upon that ground alone do I submit the case, not referring to the question of the extraordinary character of the legislation, what it means at this particular time of the year to the city of Pittsburgh and county of Allegheny, with the exception that the county of Allegheny has assessable property for taxable purposes of one billion four hundred million dollars, and I wish you to recognize that this act provides that those who are to be elected under this act, starting with the first of next year, will be, every one of them, men who never occupied a position of similar character. I want you to realize that five years ago real estate in that community, like all others, practically was down to the minimum, a year and a half or two years ago it was up at the maximum, to-day between the minimum and maximum, and we necessarily have to have men of experience and men of knowledge to adjust conditions that are bound to arise in the question of the assessment of those properties. Therefor, on the legality of the act, on the question of ripping out of office without notification and an opportunity for the defense of their position—the city of Pittsburgh was represented yesterday a week ago by the City Solicitors and the county represented by the chairman of the County Commissioners, one of the assistant Solicitors—it is well known, however, that there was not sufficient time to present the case, but that is past, that is history, we are up to the present. I feel that the members of the Senate recognize the fact that they would be passing a law that would not stand the test of the court, and, as I said this afternoon, could not possibly pass the scrutiny of the Attorney General for any recommendation to the Governor. Therefor, I ask you to defeat this legislation.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I wish to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator whether he is an attorney.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I have to plead guilty, I am not.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, whether or not he has ever studied law?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I never studied law.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny whether or not he could render an opinion as to the legality of this act, or any other law, from the standpoint of his learning in the law.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, from the standpoint of my experience in legislative bodies, I say yes.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, this question of the legality of Bills 605 and 606, after it came into my hands, as a matter of courtesy I introduced them for the real estate board of Pittsburgh and League of Boroughs and Townships of Allegheny County. Mr. Samuel W. Black, of Pittsburgh, a member of the legislative committee of the Real Estate Board, went to see Mr. D. C. Beatty, a recognized municipal authority in the city of Pittsburgh, and put the question to him as to the legaltiy of these bills. I hold in my hand,—and I am sorry that I have to take the time of the Senate,—I would ask your attention to what I am going to say through Mr. Beatty

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

Mr. PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, will state his point of order.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, we are discussing Bill 605, and not Bill 606.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would ask the courtesy of the Senate, in interest of saving time of the Senate, to allow me to consider both Bill 605 and Bill 606.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I give way.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, withdraws his point of order.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, on the question of the legality of the act I will read this letter:

Pittsburgh, Pa.,
April 8, 1921.

"Dear Sir:

(1) In regard to Senate Bill No. 606, I understand from Mr. Black that somebody has suggested that this act is unconstitutional.

This act will apply to cities of the second class. I have no doubt whatsoever about the constitutionality of the act. This act provides that city taxes shall be based upon valuations placed upon taxable property therein made by the County Taxing Board. Similar provisions already exist in regard to schools. See School Code of 1911, P. L. 337 Sections 525 to 527 both inclusive, and the same system applies already to townships. See Township Code of 1917, P. L. 384, Sections 397 and 399. Also Section 421 (P. L. 387.)

(2) In regard to Senate Bill No. 605, I understand from Mr. Black that somebody has suggested that this act is not constitutional. We see no reason to doubt the constitutionality of this act. It provides in counties of the second class for one central county taxing board, whose valuations shall be used by all cities, boroughs, school districts and townships therein as a basis for taxation, thus eliminating separate assessing boards.

The present Board of Tax Revision of the County of Allegheny exists by virtue of Act of 22 July, 1919, P. L. 1093. There is considerable doubt about the constitutionality of this act for the reasons which I will not give.

The act of 1919 makes the Board of Assessment appointive and not elective. Art. 14, Sec. 2 of the Constitution provides that the county officers shall be elected at the general elections. The Act of 1919 is a re-enactment of similar legislation beginning with the Act of March 24, 1905, P. L. 487, which made the original board of assessment appointive by the courts of common pleas. At the time of the passage of the original act of 1895 and up to 1913 the County Board of Assessment were really state officers performing state functions, and incidently by virtue of their office performing county functions. This is a ruling of the Supreme Court in Commonwealth vs. Collier 213 pa. 138 (1905) in which the court held that it was perfectly proper under the act of 1895 for the legislature to make the Board of Assessment appointive, for the reason that the Board appointed under this act were really state officers and not county officers. By the Act of 1913, P. L. 509 the taxation of personal property for state and county purposes was changed, with the result that the assessment board no longer assessed or had anything to do with the assessment of property for state purposes. It therefor follows that after the Act of 1913 was passed, no act could constitutionally be passed providing for an appointive board of assessment, as such person are undoubtedly county officers and must be elected.

It would seem therefor that this is just a question of time before this question is raised and that the legislature ought to consider the matter at the present time.

The question before the legislature is not really a question of the constitutionality of the acts, but rather a question of the desirability of passing the acts in the form in which they are presented."

Mr. President, my argument to-day, gentlemen, was from the standpoint of economy for the county of Allegheny. I have read to you the opinion of one of the best municipal lawyers in the county of Allegheny and the question is up to you, and I hope that you will decide it as you see it. I thank you very much for your consideration.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Yeas—17.

Barnes,	Culbertson,	Gray,	McNichol,
Barr,	DeWitt,	Long,	Miller, J. S.,
Buckman,	Donahue,	MacDade,	Norton,
Clark,	Herron,	McClintock,	Snyder,
			Vare,

Nays—21.

Aron,	Eyre,	Leslie,	Service,
Baldwin,	Heaton,	McConnel,	Sisson,
Craig,	Homsher,	Murdoch,	Smith,
Crow,	Jones,	Patton,	Stineman,
Einstein,	Joyce,	Phipps,	Weaver,
			Whitten,

Less than a majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 606, entitled:

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" approved March seventh one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws twenty) providing for the abolition of the Department of Assessors now existing in such cities providing that the valuations and assessments of property therein taxable for city purposes shall be the valuations and assessments placed thereon by county officers for county purposes and that all future taxes for city purposes shall be levied and assessed against such property based upon the valuations and assessments placed thereon for taxation for county purposes

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 606, entitled:

A supplement to an act entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" approved March seventh one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws twenty) providing for the abolition of the Department of Assessors now existing in such cities providing that the valuations and assessments of property therein taxable for city purposes shall be the valuations and assessments placed thereon by county officers for county purposes and that all future taxes for city purposes shall be levied and assessed against such property based upon the valuations and assessments placed thereon for taxation for county purposes

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, to save the time of the Senate, the result of the vote on bill 605 indicates the success of the efforts on the part of the Senator from Allegheny on the same charge as he made against the Senator speaking, about gumshoe work, and I, therefore, ask that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EYRE, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1351 (House Bill No. 1247), entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-six of an act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 762) entitled "An act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employes of subscribers thereto declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors and providing penalties for the violation thereof," as amended.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Section 24 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are repealed

Section 25 This act shall go into effect on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 25, page 9, line 14, by striking out the word "twenty-one" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-two."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, assuming that I would be denied unanimous consent to offer this amendment, I move that the Senate do now resolve itself into Committee on the Whole for the purpose of considering the following special amendment.

Amend section 4, page 2, line 18 by striking out the words "one dollar" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "fifty cents."

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to announce that if the Senate goes into Committee on the Whole on this motion it carries the amendment with it.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, the bill under consideration is the fisherman's license bill. I understand that it is not proper at this time to discuss the merits or the demerits of the proposed amendment and I do not wish to say anything about that. The bill has been before the Senate for a long time. It was thoroughly threshed out in the Committee on Game and Fisheries several times. You will readily recall the mix-up we had the other evening over this same bill, and as a result of the difference of opinion as to whether the bill was properly on the calendar or not and the Committee on Game and Fisheries held another meeting. After considerable discussion at that meeting a sub-committee was appointed to further investigate the bill and to suggest amendments to it, if they were found necessary, and make report to the general committee. The Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis; the Senator from Franklin, Mr. Long, and myself, were the committee. We held a meeting and offered some proposed amendments. We consulted with the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, and other Senators who are interested in the bill about the amendments and reported to the Committee on Game and Fisheries last night, or yesterday evening, the result of our deliberations. The Committee on Game and Fisheries adopted the amendments drafted by the sub-committee and the bill was reported out. No further amendments were attempted to be made either in the committee, or were suggested to the sub-committee at that time. The amendments drafted by the sub-committee, and adopted by the Committee on Game and Fisheries, provide that all funds in excess of the sum of four hundred thousand dollars, derived from the license fees provided for in this act, should be paid into the general fund of the State treasury. Later an additional amendment was adopted, providing that the act should not go into effect until the beginning of next year, in order to be fair to the fishermen this year, the season having already opened. Those amendments appear in the bill as it is on the calendar tonight, and I just want to suggest to you gentlemen, as the President has already directed your attention, if you approve Senator Buckman's motion to go into the Committee on the Whole for the purpose of special amendment, the amendments having been read to you, you automatically write into this bill the provision that the license fee shall be fifty cents. I call your attention to that so that you may be certain as to the effect of your vote. I am opposed to having that amount fixed for the license fee and ask the gentlemen of the Senate, without assuming to argue the merits or demerits of the amendments, to vote this motion down, and let us vote directly upon this bill and kill it, if it ought not be passed, and if it is a good bill let us approve it. I ask you, gentlemen, to vote no on the motion of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

At the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

HOUSE BILL NO. 215 SPECIAL ORDER ON FINAL PASSAGE MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 25, AT 10 O'CLOCK.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, the Senator from Bucks and some of the other Senators who are interested in this bill have agreed that it be not called up for final passage until next Monday evening, at ten o'clock, in order to be fair to everybody. I, therefore, move you that the consideration of the bill be made the special order of business for next Monday evening at ten o'clock.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Wayne, Mr. Barnes, ought to explain this bill to the Senate so that we will understand the merits or demerits of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Wayne, Mr. Barnes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I just wanted to ask him if he would not be good enough to explain the bill to the Senate so that we might vote upon it intelligently. I withdraw the request.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Wayne, Mr. Barnes.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Wayne, Mr. Barnes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BARNES. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Wayne, Mr. Barnes, whether this wipes out the boards of Poor Directors in counties now having such boards.

Mr. BARNES. Mr. President, It does in counties of the sixth class.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, then, in my judgment, it is a very dangerous bill to pass. We have in our county boards of Poor Directors that are doing splendid work. We have one member of the poor board of that county who not only spends his salary, but he spends many times his salary in alleviating the suffering of the poor. He has gone so far as to institute a trust that gives to every pauper in Chester County a decent burial, to cost not less than one hundred dollars, and I, for one, cannot subscribe to a bill that would endanger a board of poor directors that are doing the splendid work in the management of the poor of the county as that being done in Chester County. We have had under control of that board what is conceded by the State Board of Charities, to be the best conducted insane asylum that there is in the State of Pennsylvania, and I think to wipe out a board of that character by legislation would be a very grave mistake.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in order to be fair to the Senate, I do not think the explanation of the Senator from Wayne went quite far enough. I had this bill recommitted at one time, because it affects my county the same as it does some others, and there is a provision in this bill to the effect that the board of poor directors shall not be ripped out of office except upon a vote of the people, to be determined by referendum upon the filing of a petition of two thousand qualified electors of the county. When I first looked at the bill I felt that it was a bad bill, but after looking into it carefully, and consulting its sponsor in the House, and seeing the amendment which had been put into it protecting the board of poor directors, I felt that it was a meritorious measure, and I still so feel.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, after the explanation given by the Senator from Bucks, I can see no objection to the bill.

Mr. J. S. MILLER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. J. S. MILLER. Mr. President, does this bill repeal the special act relating to poor boards and insane hospitals in counties of the sixth class?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, necessarily no. You cannot repeal a special act by a general act.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz.:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 20, 1921.

The House met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

Hon. Lorenzo D. Thomas, Representative from Luzerne county, offered the following prayer;

Our Father in Heaven, Thou whom we regard as the Jehovah God, Thou to whom we look in every stress and circumstantial place, we would come before Thee in all humility and in all meekness at the beginning of this session, and earnestly pray Thee that Thy spirit may actuate and prompt and impel every one of us who are engaged in these great questions before us. We know, our Father, that it is not usual and customary to extend our remarks in dealing with Thee, but we would pray Thee earnestly and sincerely today that Thou wouldst indeed prompt our hearts to think Thy thoughts and do things in keeping with the greatness of our State.

Be Thou with us to the same extent as Thou wert with William Penn when he came into these woods, and when he dedicated and sanctified them to Thy purposes. Help us, Father, as we look on the dealings of the Department of Forestry, whose work it is to perpetuate this great work which Thou hast begun.

Grant that everything we do will redound to Thy honor and to our glory eventually. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. Stewart, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 7, 1921.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed the following resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives recalling from th Governor House Bill No. 87, File Folio 2929, entitled:

"Resolved (if the Senate concur) That House Bill No 87 File Folio 2929 entitled 'An act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto"' be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment"

Accordingly the original bill is herewith returned.

WM. C. SPROUL.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. DUNLAP. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DUNLAP. Mr. Speaker, I have just heard of three bills reported out from the Committee on Elections, and as neither my colleague, Mr. McBride, nor myself have had notice of any meeting being held, nor was any meeting announced, I would like to be informed how it is that there has been no call of the Committee.

Mr. HALDEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I was interested in a few bills that needed some consideration this morning. I saw Mr. Dunlap and his colleague and told them that such was the case and they said they "were not interested in any bills one way or the other, so far as Senate bills were concerned," as they were Senate bills. We got busy and we held a meeting and had a quorum back there in a little room and reported these bills out. I want to tell you that we had more than a quorum present.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE.

Mr. BRENDLE asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Sweitzer.

Mr. CHRITIAN MILLER asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Holcombe.

RESOLUTION RETURNING HOUSE BILL NO. 87 TO THE GOVERNOR WITHOUT AMENDMENT.

Mr. HARER offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 20, 1921

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No 87 entitled "An act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto'" which was recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment be returned to the Governor without amendment

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1171 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. PIKE offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 20, 1921

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No 1171 entitled "An act to amend section six hundred and twenty-five of and to amend by adding sections six hundred and twenty-six and six hundred and twenty-seven to an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto'" be recalled from Governor for the purpose of amendment

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1156 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1156, file folio 5345, entitled

An Act affecting Anthracite Coal Mines and Operations establishing the Pennsylvania State Anthracite Mine Cave Commission defining its jurisdiction and powers imposing duties upon owners and operators of anthracite coal mines and imposing penalties be made a special order of business for Monday, April 25, 1921, at 10 P. M.

Mr. KOHLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. This is a bill in which more than one million people in our section are very much interested. It is a bill for the protection of life and property in the anthracite coal fields. If we were not so interested in it, I would not ask at this time, to have it placed on the special calendar, and it is only for this reason that I am making this request. For the last six years we have been trying to get a measure like this passed by a House of Representatives. We realize now that there are one hundred and sixty bills on our third reading calendar that come before this bill and we also realize that unless action be taken promptly on this bill it will be impossible to get it through the Senate. I want you to take into consideration that on account of the women and children, and all the people who are living in the anthracite coal fields, when they go to their beds at night, especially in the Scranton district, do not know whether they will be engulfed or whether their lives will be destroyed before the next morning. There are men here with homes who have given their life, the best of their life to industry and who have spent their last dollar that they could gather together and with that little money built a home costing somewhere in the neighborhood of five thousand dollars, to have in their old age a home which may be taken away from them by a cave-in and their home be destroyed. When we consider legislation we ought to consider the loss of property and the loss of life that has been experienced in the anthracite coal fields. Twenty-one people have met with death in that field in the last few years because of mine caves and many homes have been destroyed. You have had photographs where even in the cemeteries there has been destruction and the courts have even been disturbed and the schoolhouses have been threatened. You have laws to require your children to go into the schoolhouses and you cannot assure safety for the children when they are in those school buildings. As I have said before, we have photographs of conditions in the anthracite coal fields and of the cave-in and what has been suffered in the Scranton district, especially, where schoolhouses and churches and thoroughfares have been partially destroyed. A few years ago a boy ten years of age was playing marbles on a thoroughfare and there was a cave-in of the mines and an accident occurred which should have been avoided. I think this bill should be given a proper hearing before this House and if you feel that it is a measure that will appeal to you for your vote, then let us have it upon the floor of this House and consider it. I say to you, gentlemen of the House, that in justice to the people of the anthracite coal fields this measure should be given preference and put on the calendar on special order, and if there is any merit in this bill or not, after we debate it we can decide on that. They are sending word to you from that district, from the women and children with tears and groans and heartaches and appealing to you to have this motion carry and have the bill placed where we can have action on it, and the children unborn will rise and call you "blessed."

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I recognize with considerable interest the appeal in the words of the gentleman from Lackawanna. I had a talk with him this morning and I would like as one of the members of this House, to give full consideration to this bill, but there are a number of other bills, however, on the calendar that some of you gentlemen think are just as important as this bill is. The gentleman tells you that they have been trying for six years to get a bill like this through this House. If that is the case why did not someone try to introduce this bill earlier in the session if they have been trying to get this bill through for six years? If it has the importance that Mr. Fowler claims for it, that it has for that district; if there is so much danger why did they wait until March 23, when this House had been in session for nearly three months before they presented this bill. I am not saying this for the purpose of blocking this legislation, but I do say that when a member of this House or any one either through his negligence or forgetfulness will delay a piece of legislation that now seems to him so important and lets it drag along until the last days of the session, if his request is not granted he has no one to blame but himself, if that bill has to take its regular course, with other bills, on the calendar. It is not fair to the other members of this House after the gentleman from Lackawanna and the friends of this bill have postponed action upon it themselves until the last part of the session, because remember, two months ago we knew that this session was coming to an end the latter part of April. They should have had the bill in then and they cannot complain if this House will refuse to give this bill preference, because if they do not there will be twenty-five or thirty more bills whose sponsors think are just as important as this one. If we give way for one we will have to give way for the other. Some rule will have to be established, some fast rule will have to be established in order that every member in this House will get a fair show. There is no man and I care not who he is, there is no man in this House that believes in fairplay more than I do. I have said time and time again that every bill should be reported out by the committees and not held in the Committees; that every bill should have the same fair play in this House. I believe in fighting fair when you are going to fight at all. If you want to fight a man tell him you are going to hit him and hit him on the nose while he is looking at you. I believe in fair play, but in fair play to all the members in this House, and to the gentleman from Lackawanna especially. No man in this House believes in giving that gentleman and the working class of people in this State greater fair play than I do. Why was this bill not presented long ago? Since it was not it should now take its place with the other bills being placed on the calendar.

Mr. DAWSON. In defense of my colleague Mr. Fowler, I would like to inform the members of this House, that he introduced this bill just as soon as it was prepared by a committee of lawyers and public spirited citizens of Scranton who have been working on this bill for months and months. Immediately upon the acceptance of this draft a committee came to Harrisburg and had the bill introduced in both branches of the Legislature. There was absolutely no intention of delay in introducing this bill. I hope Mr. Fowler's motion prevails.

Mr. KOHLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, the people of Lackawanna County have been very indulgent. They have been down here for four consecutive sessions trying to get relief from the mine caves which are a menace. Mr. Fowler has told you the situation and the pictures which were sent to reveal in a way the situation which is prevalent in the anthracite coal region. It is true there has been some delay but I want to submit to the gentlemen of the House that we wanted to make sure that when we put a bill in here it would be a bill that would hold. Furthermore, the bill was committed to the Committee on Mines and Mining which committee held the bill until it was actually forced to put it on the floor of this House. Now when all the eyes of the anthracite coal region are turned towards this House to have passed the only measure which will be worth anything to them and when certain gentlemen of the House are trying to place them on the calendar in such a way that there may be time enough to reach them I ask the gentlemen of the House in all fairness to my constituents and to the people in Lackawanna County, in the anthracite coal region that they vote to make this bill No. 1156 and the bill, of which I am sponsor, 1157, a special order of business on Monday evening April 25, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, it is true that I am not of a legal turn of mind or I might have introduced the bill in time to satisfy Mr. Alexander, but whether I would have had it introduced in time or not I doubt very much whether we would have reached it because Mr. Alexander himself I believe has taken up about two-thirds of the time of this House. I think we ought at least to have as much chance on the floor of this House as Mr. Alexander.

I want you my friends when you consider this bill to look over the destruction of property. I want you to see the houses that are tumbling into the ground. Here we have industries that are also ruined. I could go on and mention many instances, but you are at liberty any time to come to my desk, those of you who have not seen these pictures. I do not believe there will be a dissenting vote against this measure if you will only look over these pictures here. We are not asking for anything but for a square deal, only for an opportunity to have the bill put upon the calendar. I believe that that is only fair. We have been patient with you and I really believe that you men now will give it your consideration and put it on the calendar.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, as Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining I wish to take exception to the reflection cast by the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Fowler. I leave it to any fair minded man in the House, whether after the introduction of the bill on the 23rd of last month it was not reported out in sufficient time when it was reported last week and whether that is more than sufficient time to consider a bill of this magnitude. This bill was in the Committee since the day after it was introduced. The same bills were in the Senate and action has already been taken upon those bills. Now if they cast the reflection that this committee has been holding these bills unduly I cannot see on what ground such reflection is made and I hope that the House in considering this motion will cosider it from this standpoint.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Lackawanna misunderstood what I said. I did not condemn him for delaying the presentation of this bill, if I did, I did not mean it. I realize the fact that he did not prepare this bill and that it was prepared by those people in Lackawanna County who are very much interested in the bill. What I do say is if the people who are so greatly interested in it and who now say that it is so important for the safety of the lives and of the property of Scranton, and Lackawanna County you would have thought that they would have had this bill here at the very first day of the session and if those people say that the bill is so important they should have had it placed on the calendar at a time when they knew it would have had full consideration and gotten it along before this late hour.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, while I am from Philadelphia, I paid a visit to Lackawanna County some time ago, and I saw this condition of destruction of property and life and if we can remedy it by legislative work, the sooner we do it the better. Let us give these people the relief for which they seek.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1157 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. KOHLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1157, file folio 5375, entitled:

"An act regulating the mining of anthracite coal prescribing duties for certain municipal officers and imposing penalties" be made a special order of business on Monday April 25th at 10 o'clock P. M.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. KOHLER. Mr. Speaker, this bill I might explain to the gentlemen of the House is a companion bill to Mr. Fowler's bill. The one bill is absolutely necessary and so is the other. I therefore ask you to vote for this motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION RELATIVE TO THE ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that when this House adjourns tonight, it do so at 12 o'clock midnight, and that there be a recess of the House from 1 P. M. to 2:30 P. M. and from 6 P. M. to 8 P. M.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this motion be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I shall ask the House to oppose the proposition of referring this motion to the Committee on Rules. All of you believe our calendar should be advanced and certain bills on it cleared. The motion simply is to the end that we shall work and get the calendar cleared up, and all these questions can, I am pretty well satisfied, be cleared up.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that we are here for one specific purpose, and that is to clear up this calendar insofar as it is possible for us to do. We are sent here by our constituents, and I trust that the members of this House at this time will take a stand to carry out the motion offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia. I feel further that it is time for the members from the rural districts of this House to realize one great and important fact.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that the printer is at the present time congested, and it would be useless for this House to proceed regardless of other conditions. The Chair is just as willing as any member in this House to prolong our sessions and is willing to stay here to that end. The Chair has been consistent in expressing that willingness. The Chair feels there is no necessity for a motion at this time because the House has the matter within its own government at all times.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I realize and I feel that the members of this House have confidence in our Speaker. I do not question him for one moment, but I do say that a motion of this kind should be acted upon because I feel, from the experience of yesterday morning, that many other questions similar to that one will be threshed out upon the floor of this House, and therefor I feel that we should use every moment of time that we have given to us, from Monday night until the close of the week's session, in order that we might as far as possible take care of all the issues that might be presented to this House. Therefor, I urge upon the members of this House that if this motion is put into a committee for the purpose of having that committee acting upon it. I feel as certain as I stand here that we shall not adjourn on the twenty-eighth of this month, which I believe is the wish and desire of the mapority of the members of this House. I feel now that there is at the present time a desire upon the part of the members of this House, or at least some of them, to throttle such legislation that ought to have some consideration by this House, and I therefor propose from this hour on to endeavor, by the power given me, to use my force and intellect to see that this House will have consideration of the legislation which it ought to have. I am sick and tired, and I believe I speak the opinion of the members of this House when I say that the time has come when our constituency is looking upon us as rubber stamp legislators who are not giving very much consideration to the bills that are before the House.

Therefore it may seem to many of you folly, it may seem to many of you that this is only a side issue, but I want to tell you there is not a member of this House who will not have to give an answer to his constituency when he returns back to them, and I feel that they should demand from you service, continuous service, to take care of the legislation that is upon the calendar and that will be placed upon it up until the twenty-eighth of this month.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, my reason for making the motion to refer this matter to the Rules Committee is because it is the natural course. Motions of this kind should be so treated, and I assure you that every single member of the Rules Committee will do his very utmost to see that this House is adjourned on the day fixed for adjournment. The Rules Committee did everything possible to convene this House this morning at 10:30 o'clock. After careful consideration with the officers of the House and the members of that committee themselves, it was decided the very best we could possibly do, after hearing from the printing department, was to convene at 11 o'clock, and we then adjourned last night until 11 o'clock this morning. What was the result? At 11 o'clock this morning you didn't even have a calendar on your desk. Is anyone blaming that on the Rules Committee? If the gentleman from Allegheny uses his force and his intellect in handling the printer it may be we can meet at 9:30 in the morning, and I am as willing as any other member to come up here and meet at 9:30. I trust this motion will be sustained.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the motion read the second time.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the motion.

The Clerk then read the motion as follows:

"Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that when this House adjourns tonight, it do so at 12 o'clock midnight, and that there be a recess of the House from 1 P. M. to 2:30 P. M. and from 6 P. M. to 8 P.M."

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, that has reference to to-morrow? What is the order of business for to-day?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that there is no regular order fixed for the taking of a recess. The Chair has always tried to sense the feeling of the House, when the House has become so fatigued that it cannot follow the business it would seem that we are serving the public good in adjournment. The Chair has stated before that he is supposed to go the limit of endurance of the members without any motion, and the membership of this House has it within its power without any ruling, to adjourn at such time as in its wisdom it shall see fit, and to such time as it may desire.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, as I understand this motion, it applies only to this day; it has reference to no other legislative days. You have heard something about the work of the printer and the fact that he cannot get his work out. That reference has no place here now. We have a calendar on our desk covering fifty-six pages with some one hundred and fifty bills on third reading. You will have enough to do with the calendar as it is here to-day to fill in the hours, alluded to in that motion, and I submit to you for that reason that you support the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will ask the mover of the motion to state just exactly what the motion means and what the mover desires, as it does not seem to be clear.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the motion means that we shall adjourn at midnight, because, as I understand the rules of this House, we recess from time to time until late in the night and then we adjourn until the next morning at such and such an hour. This motion provides that when we adjourn to-day we shall adjourn at midnight. We can have a recess from 1.30 to 4 P. M. and then re-convene at four, and after another recess work until midnight.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Chair declared, "The 'ayes' appear to have it."

Whereupon, a division was called for, and one hundred and seven, or more than a constitutional majority of the gentlemen voting in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE NO. 57.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time the motion offered yesterday to suspend House Rule No. 57.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the motion.

The Clerk read the motion as follows: "Mr. James A. Walker moved, second by Mr. Glass, that House Rule 57 and amended House Rule 57 be suspended for the remainder of the session."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is, that the motion of the gentleman is out of order for the reason that it violates House Rule No. 43, as follows: First, in that it does not state any purpose for which Rule 57 is suspended; second, the motion in effect, would suspend Rule 57 for all purposes, which is not provided for in the rules of the House; third, the suspension is for a longer time than that contemplated by the rules of the House. Mr. Speaker, substantiating that, I read from Reed's Parliamentary Rules, page 50, section 53: "Unless the rules themselves provide for their own suspension, they can be suspended by unanimous consent only. The only provision for suspension of the rule is for a specific purpose." I further read from Cushing's Manual, Section 164, page 100: "It is usual in the code of rules adopted by deliberative assemblies and especially legislative bodies to provide that a certain number exceeding a majority, as two-thirds or three-fourths, shall be obtained for the suspension of a rule in a parliamentary sense." Where this is not provided there seems to be no other mode or disposition of the rule other than by general or unanimous consent. I call for a decision of the Chair on my point of order.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. Referring to the authorities presented by the gentleman from Lancaster, I will call your attention to the fact that the body which makes can suspend rules.

The body that made the rules has the same power to suspend those rules, and under this rule this House has a right to suspend it. I notice we have no provision in the rules of the House as to what we are to do if the gentleman from Lancaster is correct in the case of a motion like this, and I submit that it is then the duty of the House to determine the question as to what they want to do in such a case. I submit sir, that in as much as the rule quoted provides for a suspension, namely, a permanent suspension under which the Speaker ruled yesterday that this lie over until to-day; for when the motion was called up you will recall that the Speaker ruled that it would lie over one day under the second section of rule 43, therefore, being considered by the Speaker, a permanent suspension I submit to you that under that rule we have a perfect right to suspend this rule for the balance of the session.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, the specific motion before the House is to suspend rule 57 for the remainder of the session, I am quoting about the exact language, Rule 43 of this House provides that any rule of the House may be suspended at any time for a specific purpose by a majority vote. There is no purpose whatever stated in that motion, therefore there is no specific purpose. The effect of that rule, or rather that motion is to suspend rule 57 for all purposes which cannot be done under rule 43, and it is also a motion to suspend for an indefinite time, while the rule provides that after the particular purpose has been served the rule shall be in force. Hence it is clear under the rules of this House that this motion is out of order. If the principle in the broad sense which Mr. Walker refers to is true that an assembly has the right to suspend its rules then the gentleman from Lancaster is clearly correct because the rule states, both in Reed's Rules of Order and also in Cushing's that "Unless the rules themselves provide for their suspension they can be suspended by unanimous consent only." Therefore Mr. Speaker, if this is not within the rules it requires the unanimous consent of the House to suspend the rules.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know where the gentleman from Allegheny obtained his copy of rule 43, but I am fully aware what rule 43 requires, namely, "that it shall be printed and published," as found in Smull's Legislative Hand Book. On page 1061 I read what he read, and also this, "Any motion to alter or amend the rules permanently shall lie over one day and shall be adopted by a majority vote." This is a motion to permanently suspend that rule until the end of the session which is fixed by a resolution of the House and Senate, and if that is not permanent, I want to know when the session begins again.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, replying to the remarks of the gentleman who has just spoken, I wish to say that that is not a motion to altar or amend the rules, it is a motion to suspend the rule. It is true that a motion to alter or amend can be adopted, but the motion before this House is to suspend the rule for the balance of the session and therefore the rule applies which has just been read.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the point of order raised by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, is well taken. The rules provide but one method for suspension and that is for a particular purpose, that being the case the point of order of the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, is well taken and the Chair sustains that point of order.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that on Wednesday, April 20th, 1921; Thhrsday, April 21, 1921; Friday, April 22nd, 1921; Monday, April 25th, 1921; Tuesday, April 26th, 1921; Wednesday, April 27th, 1921, rule 57, and rule 57 as amended be suspended for the specific purpose of allowing the discharge of all committees from the consideration of House and Senate bills referred to the standing committees.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILLIAMS. "Look before you jump, think before you act." I want to follow up these thoughts by calling the attention of the House to the rules of the Senate under which you can get a bill out of committee there. The feeling on the part of some of the members of the House is that rule 57 as amended and now in force is unfair in this House. Without doubt there are many meritorious bills passed by this House which are now in committees in the Senate, and they may never get out. Now if a member of this House through his Senator wants to get that bill out of Committee what must he do? Rule 42 of the Senate says, "No committee shall be discharged from the consideration of a bill within five days of its reference without the unanimous consent of the Senate." One member in the Senate can prevent a bill from coming out of committee. Again it says "Dispensing with rules, 29. The consent of two-thirds of the members present shall be necessary to dispense with any rule." Now if you want to suspend rule 42 which requires unanimous consent to get a bill out of the committee in the Senate, you must by a two-thirds vote under rule 29.——

The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Glass, wants to interrogate me. He sub rosa says to me we are not in the Senate. We are not but I am talking of what the Senate rules are and I think I have presented them to the House so that they now understand them.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, the passage of this motion is clearly unnecessay. One would think from the nature of this resolution that the sponsor of it has the idea that unless that resolution passes no committee can be discharged from the consideration of a bill. Why gentlemen that is not the fact at all. Under rule 43, by a majority vote you can suspend rule 57 for the specific purpose of considering any one bill that ought to come out on the floor of this House, and then by a Constitutional majority of 104 votes you can put it on the calendar. What more latitude ought this House have. By comparing the rules of the Senate with this rule you will see how very much more latitude the House has than the Senate has. Any meritorious measure that is in a committee and which is to be brought out of the committee can be brought out by suspending Rule 43 for a specific purpose, and by having 104 members vote to discharge the committee. I submit to this House that it is fair and as wide open as the door should be at this time. And let me say to you gentlemen, that up until a few years ago that was the only manner in which you could discharge a committee from a consideration of a bill. If my recollection is correct it was in 1913 that that rule was amended so that the House by a vote of sixty could discharge a committee. Prior to that time during the late days of the session it required one hundred and four votes to discharge a committee. Now, in these late days of the session, when many bills are in the committee which for the betterment of conditions ought to be there, I submit to you that it is not unreasonable but is fair and just that this House should vote this motion down and stand by the Rules Committee. As the rules are at present it will enable you at any time for the specific purpose of considering a bill, to suspend Rule 43 by having one hundred and four members vote for such a motion. I think that this motion should be placed in the hands of the Rule Committee at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia is not for a specific purpose but for a general purpose under the rules. And the Chair rules that the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walker, is out of order.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask you to give attention to the language of the gentleman from Tioga, and pause and consider. In 1917 the Speaker of the House ruled that a similar motion was in order. It was a motion in connection with the transit bills that came into this House, and the Speaker at that time ruled that such a motion was in order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is firm in his decision.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, it is with the deepest regret that I have to appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I second the appeal.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walker, appeals from the decision of the Chair. The Chair will call the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, to the Chair.

MR. FLYNN IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is on the appeal of the gentleman from Philadelphia from the decision of the Chair. The question is, shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of the House?

On the question,

Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of the House?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, we are now nearing the end of this session. Every gentleman on the floor of this House knows how the Chair has ruled on all points, every gentleman on the floor of this House knows just how much merit there is in this proposition; every gentleman on the floor of this House knows the reasonableness of this proposition, and every gentleman knows how easy it will be to have a bill placed on the calendar unless the rules remain as they now stand. I submit to you gentlemen that the Chair should be sustained in his ruling.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, the getleman from Philadelphia, the sponsor of this motion, stated a little while ago that a ruling similar to that which he asked for from the Speaker was made in the session of 1917. I supported a resolution which was seconded by the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Phillips, in 1917, which provided that on certain days,—I think I mentioned Monday and Tuesday—for the closing of the session, that all bills reported from committees either as committed or as amended shall, when so reported, be read for the first time. The Chair at that time ruled that that was a temporary change in the rules and could be entertained, that it was for a specific purpose that that motion was made, and the Chair ruled accordingly. I feel, therefore, Mr. Chairman, that in view of the fact of the precedent established by the Legislature in the session of 1917, that we ought to follow precedent. I feel that when the appeal is taken it is not because we do not have confidence in the Speaker but because we feel that his ruling should follow precedent.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, we have reached the point in the discussion of this motion, back and forth, which is just to satisfy two or three members of this House, or a political organization of the State,—a time when we should say "No". Gentlemen, let us be men, let us stand by the Speaker of this House. He has been fair in his rulings from the time this session started.

We have had no trouble with any decision that came from him; let us sustain him now, not because two or three men have been consuming the time, but we have gotten away beyond the time. If we had the time that these gentlemen have taken up on these rules we would not have to ask for more time, and although this time has been taken up, let us sustain the Speaker.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, there is no man in this House who has a higher regard for the Speaker than I have. However, he is a lawyer who knows just as well as I do that we at times are in error. The appeal was taken in this case because he, like myself, has been subjected to years of bowing to precedents. I have before me the rules of the Speaker of the session of 1917, and this motion was drawn exactly in accord with the purpose and terms of the motion then made and ruled in order. I take it that the Speaker in his large experience at the bar realizes that at times he is in error and the court fails to agree with him and likewise the jury. I think every member of the bar has found the same facts coming up before him in his experience as an attorney. Therefore, the motion is for a purpose, not wide or broad perhaps, but for the purpose of the suspension of a rule for a certain day. Therefore, I submit that when the Speaker ruled, as he did, he was overruling the opinion of our former Speaker of this House, Mr. Baldwin, in 1917. I took the appeal to find out whether the precedent is to be followed or not; the motion was not made for any other purpose, and it was to the effect that by the ruling of the Speaker of this House yesterday this motion was not looked upon as a suspension but as a permanent change, and then when the Speaker ruled as he did this morning he reversed himself from yesterday. I take it that it is the duty of this House to determine what kind of a motion this is, and I submit it to the intelligence of the House to decide whether this is a permanent or a temporary motion.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I will again call your attention to the principle where any rule of the House may be suspended at any time for a specific purpose. What is meant by that on which the Chair was called upon to rule? It was to suspend a particular rule of the House for a particular purpose. The rule intended this: For the purpose of supporting a particular bill or a particular resolution, the intention was that this rule might be suspended and then after that had been done to go into effect as before; but under this motion this would open the gates to all resolutions during the days mentioned. That is not in contemplation and that was a violation of rule No. 43, and I take it that the ruling of the Speaker was clearly right.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. The Chair when he made his ruling felt that he was entirely in order. A rule for a specific purpose means what it says, a specific purpose. It is not an omnibus rule that can open all kinds of questions and for all times within its purview. The Chair was considering what would be the purpose if such a motion would carry and what would be the result? It would mean a general dumping of all the bills in committee upon the floor of this House and an instant congestion of our calendar, that we would not know where we were standing; it would throw the printer back to a point where he would be in confusion, when your legislative work would be very seriously menaced and there is perhaps possible a general suspension of the rules and the breaking down of all parliamentary law in this session. This is a bad time for the committees who have under consideration any measures to defeat all parliamentary law. As I pointed out yesterday, to throw out illy digested, unconsidered, undeliberated legislation upon the floor of this House merely for the purpose of bringing one bill to the attention of this House. I believe there is not a precedent that any gentleman can point to that would overrule the opinion of the Chair and delivered from the desk, and the Chair for this reason and in the interests of the membership of the House and the expedition of business, asks you to sustain him in this personal appeal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of per- of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, not long ago I stood upon this floor and defended the Speaker—

The SPEAKER. The Chair would call the gentleman's attention to the fact, if the gentleman secures the floor on the question of personal privilege, he must confine himself to the question before the House.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I rose and I rise again to be recognized to speak on the question before the House. Not long ago this same question was brought to the attention of this House. At that time I took the floor in defense of the Speaker's ruling. I did the same thing this morning. While that rule to me was not in accord with my wishes, yet I have sufficient reverence for the dignity of the Speaker of this House. Therefore, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of this House, it was my purpose to bring to the attention of this House, when I asked for the privilege of speaking on a question of personal privilege, the fact that I simply put my ears to the ground. That is no reflection upon the Speaker of this House, but in order to satisfy the two parties who are at each other's throats, we are called here to say to the people of Pennsylvania that we are not in harmony with the Speaker of this House. Therefore, I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia who has reverence for the Speaker of this House and for the members of this House, to withdraw his appeal on this motion.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the appeal.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second to the appeal.

The SPEAKER. The appeal having been withdrawn, the ruling of the Chair stands as the decision of the House.

SPEAKER SPANGLER IN THE CHAIR.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 79.

An Act authorizing district attorneys in counties of the third class to appoint county detectives defining their powers and duties fixing their salaries and providing for the payment of such salaries and the expenses of such detectives from the county treasury

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend page 1 Section 1 line 10 by striking out at the beginning of the line the word "eighteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "two thousand two" and also by striking out the figures "($1,800)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "($2,200)"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. DAWSON. I ask the members of this House to concur in the Senate amendments to the bill which I introduced, and which only affects third class counties. This bill was passed by the House, was amended in the Senate, and now we ask the concurrence of the House in the amendments.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Dawson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Dawson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAWSON. Yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Lackawanna state just what the third class counties are. I do not have the list here. What are the third class counties in the State?

Mr. DAWSON. Westmoreland, Lackawanna and Luzerne.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Are all those counties in favor of this change?

Mr. DAWSON. To the best of my knowledge they are in favor of this change.

Mr. ALEXANDER. All the third class counties?

Mr. DAWSON. Yes sir.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 1330.

An Act to amend section eleven of an act approved the twelfth day of July nineteen hundred and nineteen entitled "An act authorizing stock corporations other than building and loan associations and corporations authorized by law to transact a banking or insurance business to make provision upon formation reorganization merger or consolidation for the issue of either or both preferred or common shares without nominal or par value regulating the same and such corporations and prescribing the method of determining the number of shares and capital of corporations issuing shares in such manner" by providing that no bonus shall be required to be paid under the laws of this Commonwealth upon the stock of a corporation issued to acquire property of which an existing corporation is obliged to divest itself in order to comply with any law of this Commonwealth or to enable it to exercise any rights otherwise conferred on it by any law of this Commonwealth and provided further that no bonus shall be required to be paid under the laws of this Commonwealth in cases of reorganization merger or consolidation in connection with which all certificates of capital stock with nominal or par value are fully surrendered by the shareholders of the corporation in process of reorganization or of the two or more corporations in process of merger or consolidation and in exchange therefore the aforesaid shareholders receive without other consideration or the paying in of additional capital assets a like or a lesser or a greater number of shares without nominal or par value

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1 page 5 line 1 by striking out after the word "or" the word "procedure" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "proceeding"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendment made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 483.

An Act to further amend the fifth section of an act entitled "An act relating to the organization and jurisdiction of orphans' courts and to establish a separate orphans' court in and for counties having more than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants and to provide for the election of judges thereof" approved May nineteenth Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and six) as amended by fixing and determining the salaries of the assistant clerks of said court in counties of the first second third and fourth classes

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1 page 5 line 3 by inserting after the word "twenty-five hundred" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "three thousand"

Amend Section 1 page 5 line 3 by inserting after the word "thousand" the words "three hundred"

Amend section 1 page 5 line 4 by striking out after the word "assistant" the word "fourteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen"

Amend section 1 page 5 line 8 by inserting after the word "third" the words "and fourth"

Amend section 1 page 5 lines 9 and 10 by striking out after the word "class" the following "and twelve hundred dollars each in counties of the fourth class"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, in order that there may be no misunderstanding about this bill, I would say that it affects fourth class counties, of which the county I represent is one. I believe that the people of Delaware county, and of the fourth class counties, as far as I know, are opposed to this bill. The provisions raise the salary relative to the Orphans' Court making the Register of Wills the Clerk of the Orphans' Court where a separate Orphans' Court is established. This bill passed this House in the first place by making the salary of the first assistant $2500, and the second assistant $1400. The amendments to the bill raise it from $2500 to $3000 and from $1400 to $1700. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do not concur in these amendments.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, this is the bill that passed the House increasing the salaries of the assistant clerks in the Orphans' Court in counties of the first, second and third class. In the Senate it was amended to include counties of the fourth class on the statement that the members from those counties were in favor of the amendment. Now, these counties are Schuylkill, Montgomery, Luzerne, Cambria, Fayette, Lancaster and Berks. And it was because of the statement made by the Senators that I agreed to the amendment. This amendment originally only applied to the counties of the first, second and third class, but now it includes counties of the fourth class. I ask you to vote against this motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state the question: Those who vote "aye" vote to concur in the amendments made by the Senate, those who vote "no" to non-concur.

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, that is, all those who vote "aye" in favor of sustaining the bill as it comes from the Senate.

Mr. HESS. So that you may all know, and that there may be no misunderstanding, I want to say that when this bill passed this House it was simply a salary raising proposition. Now, if you will vote "no" you will vote to place the bill back in the condition it was when it went from the House. It was amended in the Senate to include fourth class counties and if you will vote no on the question of concurring in the amendments made by the Senate you will put the bill in the position where the fourth class counties can be amended out of it. The fourth class counties object to being included in the bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRADY. Yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, as I understood the gentleman a while ago he said that when this bill was in the House before it did not include fourth class counties?

Mr. BRADY. The increase of salary did not include fourth class counties.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, the caption as I understand it is not amended, and that the only amendment is that it raises the salary from $2500 to $3000 in one instance, and from $1400 to $1700 in another instance, and does not change the clerks whatever. Am I mistaken about that?

Mr. BRADY. It leaves the classes the same as they were originally, first, second, third and fourth. The bill as originally introduced did not include the counties of the fourth class. The Senate amended it to include counties of the fourth class. The real increase in salary does not apply to the assistants, but to the transcribing clerks who are raised from $1200 to $1500. Now, if the majority of the members of the fourth class counties do not wish the bill as amended I see no reason why they should vote for it, but I understood that the majority of the members from the fourth class counties wanted the increase from $1200 to $1500.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the amendments read again, as I understand that in the first place there was no amendment as to the fourth class counties, but that there has been some made since the bill left the House.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 5, line 2, by striking ont the words "twenty-five hundred" and insertng in lieu thereof the words "three thousand"; amend section 1, page 5, line 3, by inserting after the word "thousand" the words "three hundred"; amend section 1, page 5, line 4, by striking out after the word "assistant" the word "fourteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "seventeen"; amend section 1, page 5, line 8, by inserting after the word "third" the words "and fourth"; amend section 1, page 5, lines 9 and 10, by striking out after the word "class" the following: "and twelve hundred dollars each in counties of the fourth class".

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, so that we may understand this bill and so that we can understand what we are voting on, I had the amendments read the second time, and I call your attention to the fact that the bill so far as it relates to different class counties is not changed anywhere, but it does change the first assistant in the fourth class counties from twenty-five hundred to three thousand dollars. It makes the second assistant in fourth class counties twenty-three hundred dollars and the third assistant fifteen hundred dollars, whereby in the first instance, the first assistant was twenty-five hundred; the second assistant two thousand, which is raised to twenty-three hundred and the third assistant, seventeen hundred, which in the first place was fourteen hundred dollars, and then puts the transcribing clerks in fourth class counties in the same position as in third class counties making the salary fifteen hundred dollars which in the first place was twelve hundred dollars. This practically makes the assistant clerk to the register of wills the assistant clerk in the Orphans' Court.

He already gets a salary as assistant register of wills, of twenty-five hundred dollars, which is a pretty good salary at that.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

HOUSE BILL NO. 1287 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker I move that House Bill No. 1287, file folio No. 5381, entitled:

An Act imposing a State tax on anthracite coal providing for the assessment and collection thereof and providing penalties for the violation of this act on page 48 of to-day's calendar, be made a special order on third reading and final passage for Wednesday, April 20, 1921, at 5 o'clock P. M.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now take a recess until 3 o'clock.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I would second the motion to take a recess until 3 o'clock, but in view of the fact that we had in mind that the House would recess until 4 o'clock, a number of committee appointments were made with which a 3 o'clock recess would interfere.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I believed that I was expressing the wish of the majority of the members of this House who desire to work the limit of time, but in view of the statement of the gentleman from Lancaster, I will amend my motion that we take a recess until 4 o'clock.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 1:45 o'clock P. M.) the House took a recess until 4 o'clock P. M.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 4 o'clock P. M.
The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

BILL ON FIRST READING.

Mr. McCAIG asked and obtained unanimous consent to have a bill read on first reading at this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1057, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Insurance Fund

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

HOUSE BILLS NO. 270 AND NO. 271 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 270, file folio 519, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the twenty-fifth day of February one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws page eleven) entitled "An act to establish a Department of Forestry to provide for its proper administration to regulate the acquisition of land for the Commonwealth and to provide for the control protection and maintenance of forestry reservation by the Department of Forestry" as amended by establishing additional bureaus and offices in said department establishing forest districts providing for forest officers assistants and labor providing for the salaries of the officers and employees of the department fixing the amount of expenditures for the acquisition of land and repealing certain acts

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1111 (SENATE BILL NO. 297).

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1111 (Senate Bill No. 297), file folio 935, entitled:

An Act authorizing receivers of taxes in and for cities of the first class to furnish certificates of taxes and claims which are liens on real estate and fixing the fees for such services which was defeated on final passage on Tuesday, April 19, 1921, be reconsidered.

Mr. A. S. C. MILLAR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say to the members of the House that this was the bill that was defeated last night, but the sponsors have agreed to an amendment. It is a proposition which lowers the rate, and I therefore ask for this reconsideration.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1 by striking out in lines 8 and 9 the words "one dollar" and insert in lieu thereof the words "fifty cents"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1684, (Senate Bill No. 940), entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the Fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" as amended

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same That section ten hundred and seventy-eight of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" which as amended by the act approved the nineth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and ninety-seven) entitled "An act to amend sections one thousand and seventy-eight one thousand and eighty-one and one thousand and eighty-two of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto'" reads as follows

"Section 1078 The board of township commissioners of townships of the first class shall charge so much of the cost of construction of any system of sewers or drains constructed by the authority of section ten hundred and seventy of this act as may be represented by benefits upon the properties accommodated or benefited thereby" is hereby further amended so as to read as follows

Section 1078 The cost of construction of any system of sewers or drains constructed by the authority of section ten hundred and seventy of this act shall be charged upon the properties accommodated or benefited thereby to the extent of such benefits

Section 2 That section ten hundred and seventy-nine of said act which reads as follows

"Section 1079 Whenever a sewer system is constructed by a township of the first class for the accomodation of a certain portion only of the township the commissioners of such township may constitute the territory accommodated into a sewer district or divide it into several sewer districts In every such case the commissioners shall make an estimate of the proportion of the cost of the sewer system which should equitably be charged on each of said districts and declare and establish such apportionment by ordinance No district shall be charged with more than its due proportion of the cost of the main sewers pumping stations et cetera used jointly by more than one district the aggregate amount charged on property in any such district shall not exceed the amount of such estimate" is hereby amended so as to read as follows

Section 1079 Whenever a sewer system is constructed by a township of the first class for the accommodattion of a certain portion only of the township the commissioners of such township may constitute the territory accommodated into a sewer district or divide it into several sewer districts In every such case of division into several districts the commissioners shall make an estimate of the proportion of the cost of the sewer system which should equitably be charged on each of said districts and declare and establish such apportionment by ordinance No district shall be charged with more than its due proportion of the cost of the main sewers pumping stations et cetera used jointly by more than one district the aggregate amount charged on property in any such district shall not exceed the amount of such estimate subject to the provisions of section ten hundred and eighty-two and ten hundred and eighty-three of this act Where the whole of the township is accommodated by the system it may also be treated as a single district or divided into districts and be subject to the foregoing provisions

Section 3 That section ten hundred and eighty of said act which as amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and seventy-eight) entitled "An act to amend sections one thousand and eighty and one thousand and eighty-three and to repeal sections one thousand and eighty-four and one thousand and eighty-five of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto'" reads as follows

"Section 1080 Any amount not properly chargeable upon properties benefited shall be paid out of the general township funds" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1080 Any amount not legally chargeable upon properties benefited shall be paid out of the general township fund

Section 4 That section ten hundred and eighty-one of said act which as amended by the act approved the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred ninety-seven) entitled "An act to amend sections one thousand and seventy-eight one thousand and eighty-one and one thousand and eighty-two of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto'" reads as follows

"Section 1081 The charge for any such sewer construction in any township of the first class shall be assessed upon the properties accommodated or benefited by an assessment in proportion to benefits The amount of the charge on each property shall be ascertained as provided in sections ten hundred and eighty-two and ten hundred and eighty-three of this act" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1081 The charge for any such sewer construction in any township of the first class shall be assessed upon the properties accommodating or benefited in either of the following methods

(a) By an assessment pursuant to township ordinance of each lot or piece of land incorporation to its frontage abutting on the sewer allowing such reduction in the case of properties abutting on more than one sewer as the ordinance may specify No assessment by frontage shall be made on properties of such a character as not to be lawfully subject to such manner of assessment and each abutting property shall be assessed with not less than the whole amount of the benefit accruing to it and legally assessable

(b) By an assessment upon the several properties abutting on the sewer in proportion to benefits The amount of the charge on each property shall be ascertained as provided in sections ten hundred and eighty-two and ten hundred and eighty-three of this act

When a township is divided into sewer districts the assessment in each district may be by different methods

Section 5 That section ten hundred and eighty-two of said act which as amended by the act of the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred ninety-seven) entitled "An act to amend sections one thousand and seventy-eight one thousand and eighty-one and one thousand and eighty-two of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" reads as follows

"Section 1082 Upon petition of the township commissioners or any taxpayer of the township the court of common pleas of the proper county shall appoint three disinterested persons from the board of county viewers as viewers neither of whom shall be a resident of that portion of the township which is accommodated by the sewers in question The viewers or a majority of them having been sworn or affirmed to preform their duties with fidelity and impartiality shall assess upon each piece of land located within the sewer district which in their opinion is benefited by the construction of the sewer system whether abutting on a sewer or not such amount as in their judgment represents the benefit accruing to such lot In no case shall the viewers in assessing benefits to private property through which any sewer runs take into consideration any damages which such property has sustained but all such damages shall be asssed in the manner provided, in sections ten hundred and seventy-four to ten hundred and seventy-seven inclusive of this act The aggregate of the assessments in any sewer district shall not exceed the amount charged to such district for its share of the cost of the sewer construction" is hereby further amended so as to read as follows

Section 1082 In all cases where the township commissioners shall select the method provided by sub-division (b) of the foregoing section ten hundred and eighty-one they shall petition the court of common pleas for appointment of viewers to assess benefits In all cases where they shall neglect for a period of three months after the completion of the sewer system to either ordain assessments by frontage or present petition for appointment of viewers taxpayers of the township whose property valuation as assessed for taxable purposes within the township shall amount to fifty per centum of the total property valuation as assessed for taxable purposes within the township may present a petition to the court of common pleas of the proper county for the appointment of viewers to assess benefits and in all cases where such taxpayers shall within three months of the adoption of any ordinance levying an assessment under the method provided by sub-section (a) of said section ten hundred and eighty-one by petition state to said court that such assessment insufficiently represents the benefits accruing to abutting properties they may include in such petition a prayer for the appointment of viewers to assess benefits In either case the said court shall thereupon appoint three disinterested persons from the board of county viewers neither of whom shall be a resident of that portion of the township which is accommodated by the sewer in question The viewers or a majority of them having been sworn or affirmed to preform their duties with fidelity and impartiality shall assess upon each piece of land abutting upon the line of said sewer system which in their opinion is benefited by its construction such amount as represents the benefit accruing to such lot In no case shall the viewers in assessing benefits to private property through which any sewer runs take into consideration any damages which such property has sustained but all such damages shall be assessed in the manner provided in sections ten hundred and seveny-four to ten hundred and seventy-seven inclusive of this act The aggregate of the assessments in any sewer district shall not exceed the amount charged to such district for its share of the cost of the sewer construction unless the same shall by petition of taxpayers whose property valuation as aforesaid shall amount to fifty per centum of the total property valuation as assessed for taxable purposes within the township presented within three months after the adoption of an ordinance providing for an assessment by frontage be stated to insufficiently represent the amount of benefits to such properties in which case the proceedings by taxpayers authorized above shall be applicable Upon the filing of such a petition by taxpayers as aforesaid for appointment of viewers any assessment made by the commissioners and any proceedings thereunder shall be null and void

Section 6 That section ten hundred and eighty-three of said act which as amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act to amend sections one thousand and eighty and one thousand and eighty-three and to repeal sections one thousand and eighty-four and one thousand and eighty-five of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto'" reads as follows

"Section 1083 The viewers or a majority of them shall make report in writing specifying the amount assessed by them on each lot or parcel of land and shall file the same with the township secretary within the time directed by the order appointing them After the report is filed the viewers shall cause public notice thereof to be given by publication for two weeks in two newspapers of the county having a general circulation in the township Such advertisement shall state a time not less than fifteen days after the filing of the report and a place where the viewers will meet and exhibit their report and hear all exceptions and objections thereto on behalf of the property owners or by representatives of the township or taxpayers thereof After the hearing of such objections the viewers shall make whatever changes they deem proper in their report

When such revision has been made notice by advertisement in the two newspapers aforesaid for two weeks shall be given by the viewers of the amount assessed against each lot or parcel of land and the name of the owner or reputed owner and a report in writing signed by said viewers or a majority of them specifying the amount assessed on each lot or parcel of land and the name of the owner or reputed owner shall be made to the court of common pleas a copy thereof also to be filed at the same time with the township treasurer and when the report is filed in court the same shall be confirmed nisi Forty-five days after the filing of the report if no exceptions thereto have been filed nor an appeal to the court for a jury trial is taken as hereinafter provided the report shall be confirmed absolutely and the amount of any assessment against any lot or parcel of land which shall not theretofore have been paid to the township treasurer (who shall in the meantime certify such payments to the prothonotary) shall be entered as a judgment in favor of the township and against the owner and constitute a lien upon the land against which it is assessed Any taxpayer may enforce the collection of such judgment by issuing an execution on behalf of the township in case the board of commissioners of said township fail to enforce such collection within one year from the entry of said judgment and this privilege shall extend to the enforcement of the collection of any judgment consequent upon any jury trial hereinafter provided for Within thirty days after the filing of the report any property owner affected thereby or the board of township commissioners may file exceptions thereto or appeal to the court and demand a trial by jury If the board of township commissioners shall fail to file exceptions or take an appeal from all or any portions of the report within said period of thirty days any taxpayer of the township may on behalf of the township file exceptions to or appeal from all or any portion of the report to the court of common pleas within fifteen days after the expiration of said period of thirty days upon giving security approved by the court for the payment of subsequently accruing costs in case the exceptions or appeal shall not result more advantageously to the township that the report itself

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. PHILIP H. DEWEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page 10 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 1247.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Philip H. Dewey,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1247, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-six of an act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and sixty-two) entitled "An act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employes of subscribers thereto declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors and providing penalties for the violation thereof" as amended

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PHILIP H. DEWEY. Mr. Speaker, in supporting this bill I wish to say that the State Workmen's Compensation Fund, is a bureau provided by an Act of Assembly and the rates made by it, when approved by the Insurance Department, are the rates that all insurance carriers must use in writing compensation insurance, except that the State Fund is permitted to cut them 10%.

It may be of interest to state here how this bureau arrives at the rate for any given class of business. It deducts the actual money paid out to injured men and to the dependents of those killed while working in that class, plus the medical and hospital expenses. This sum it divides by the actual payroll for that class of business. This gives the actual cost per $100.00 of claims in that class and is known as the pure premium.

To this actual cost of claims is added 37½% or the average expense ratio of stock insurance companies. This makes the Manual or Bureau rate on any class of business.

As the State Fund ratio of expense has never exceeded an average of 15% of its premium income, you can see that if the State Fund ratio of expense were taken into account only, the pure premium loading would not need to be 37½% of the premium. Therefore, this bill can not affect the insurance rate.

In regard to the cost of insurance, the State Fund is the only insurance carrier that agrees to return the entire net earnings on its premium income; and a very few are financially able to do so.

The State Fund had a $2,600,000.00 premium income in 1919. Therefore, the $4,000.00 increase involved in this bill would not have effected the insurance cost that year one sixth of one per cent. In 1920 the premium income of the State Fund was $3,000,000.00. That year its effect would have been less than one seventh of one percent of the income.

You can see how infinitesimal the effect of even a very much larger increase would be on insurance cost in the State Fund.

The State Fund has had a steady growth since it was organized in 1915 and at the end of 1916 its premium income was $770.000.00. At the end of 1920 its premium income was $3,000,000.00. At the end of 1916 it had total assets of $751,367.00. At the end of 1920 its assets had grown to over $5,000.000.00.

This rapid growth during the five years of its existence was not an accident, but was due to the splendid management of those in control of the State Fund.

The State of Pennsylvania does not contribute directly or indirectly to the expense or in any other way to the State Workmen's Insurance Fund. When the State Fund was new, the State did contribute $500,000.00 to insure its solvency in the event of a great catastrophe early in its history. The great catastrophe never came and the State Fund became so rich from its earnings on its insurance business it was possible to do a thing that never has been done in the history of the State of Pennsylvania: it returned to the State Treasury the entire $500,000.00 which had been appropriated from the State.

The cost of insurance in the State Fund, as I said before, is the net cost of doing the business and paying the losses. No other insurance carrier in Pennsylvania makes this offer, nor could many of them make it, but the financial condition of the State Fund has been thoroughly audited by competent actuaries of the Insurance Department and by disinterested independent actuaries outside of the State Fund and all agree that it is in a healthy financial condition at this time to return to the policy holders the net earnings.

In the past the saving to policy holders has been as follows:

10% cut in the rate other insurance carriers charge when the policy is written.

10% return of premium at the end of the year on coal risks.

15% return of premium at the end of the year on commercial risks.

Beginning January 1, 1920 it was agreed to return the second dividend which will be made up from the balance left from the premium income after losses, expenses and the above dividends have been subtracted and will be declared for 1920 as soon as the Insurance Department has completed the examination of the State Fund books and informs the management how much this second dividend is. That it will be a fair dividend is shown from the fact that it is from the money which will go to make up this second dividend that the State Fund has accumulated $2,000,000.00 in surplus over all its liabilities during the first four years of its existence.

The present manager is thoroughly competent to handle the affairs of the State Fund and has had the experience in insurance matters to warrant one to expect his handling of the affairs to produce the splendid results that they have. For ten years he was the Chief Examiner of the Insurance Department, dealing with all the financial matters of the different insurance carriers doing business within this great Commonwealth. This work gave him the needed experience to handle the affairs of the State Fund.

I think it hardly necessary for me to present further arguments. That a management that has handled an organization like the State Fund during five years and made such a splendid showing, creating a $5,000,000.00 Corporation from nothing, with a surplus of over $2,000,000.00 starting from nothing, with a premium income of $3,000,000.00 annually, is deserving of a fair salary. To any man familiar with matters in the insurance world, no defense of the salary provided in this bill need be offered. The entire motive power behind this great enterprise is in those men who are effected by this measure, and if we expect this business to grow and increase we must keep competent men at its head, and this can be done only by proper remuneration.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, this is a proposition which is a salary raiser, and I wish to say to you that it is a salary raser which I heartily endorse. While I have endeavored in all respects to be consistent, I believe that I am so in voting for this bill, and this is my reason. As you have heard, the bill raises the salary of the manager of the Workmen's Compensation Insurance Fund and the assistant manager.

In 1915 the State gave this insurance fund $300,000; in 1917 they gave to the fund $200,000. Four weeks ago they paid back to the State $500,000. That fund does not owe the State one cent; not one dollar of the people's money goes into any of these raises. By reason of the industry and the knowledge that these gentlemen have had of this business, it has placed this insurance fund in a position so that it has invested assets amounting to over $5,000,000. It has a surplus of over $2,000,000, so that the men who are being insured and the employers who are using insurance get a better and cheaper insurance than any of the old line insurance companies can give—better for this reason: That when they insure in any other company and that company fails, the man who has insured assumes the responsibility and it goes back to him, but it is not so with the Workmen's Compensation Insurance; it assures that liability to the end of time. I say this is a worthy cause and a worthy rise and I think the House should vote for it.

MOTION TO MAKE SENATE BILL NO. 882 A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 882 (House Bill No. 1687), entitled:

An act to empower the Public Service Commission to require railroad corporations to employ an adequate number of men upon trains and to repeal an act approved the nineteenth day of June nineteen hundred add eleven (Pamphlet Laws ten hundred and fifty-three) entitled "An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains" be made a speial order of business on third reading and final passage on Monday, April 25, 1921, at 9 P. M.

Mr. GEORGE T. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. McMULLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that this bill should be given a special position or privilege. Why not allow it to remain where it is and take its place in the regular course on the calendar. I ask the gentlemen of the House to vote against this motion.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, it is generally customary in the closing days of the House to place all important legislation on special order on the calendar. To-day we have placed on special order the Mine Cave Bill, and we have anthracite section legislation relating to forestry, and we also have placed on the calendar the Anthracite Tax Bill. The Full Crew Bill is one of the most important pieces of legislation that will be discussed at this session, and it is important that it shall be given preference.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, every bill that has been placed on the postponed calendar has been a House bill. The Senate bills can stand until the last day of the session and if this bill can be reached by that time it can be passed and taken over while the House bills must be passed at least three days before. Therefore, there is no reason why this Senate bill should be pushed ahead of the House bills that are also important.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that this is a very important bill. There is no reason in view of the fact that we have given other bills preference and made them special orders why this bill should not receive the same treatment as other bills have been accorded.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, at the request of the gentleman from Lackawanna we made a special order of the bill that he was sponsor for, and at the request of his colleague we made a special order on a mine cave bill that he was sponsor for at the same time. We have favored labor to that extent and we have no right gentlemen to differentiate on this bill. This is a bill in which labor is interested and it seems to me that since the bill applies to only twenty-three hundred people in this state and the other bill applies to more it is perfectly logic that the entire population of this Commonwealth should be interested and that a special order should be made on this bill.

Mr. McMULLEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call, I demand a yea and nay vote.

The gentleman from Philadelphia, stated that this bill affects only twenty-three hundred people in this State, I want to say to you that it applies, that the safety provisions apply to more than eight million people in this State. I want to say to you gentlemen, that I will prove on the final passage of this bill and give you facts that I believe will convince you that the repealer is a bad measure. Therefore, I do ask that a yea and nay vote be taken on this motion.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I cannot quite understand the attitude of the gentleman who just spoke. There was on last evening if my memory serves me right, when the question was asked, or a motion made to place a bill on special order in which he was deeply interested, taking his own argument, that many thousands of people are interested in the measure that is now before us, that this should have a special place at a special time upon the calendar of this House, that this should have our serious consideration. Mr. Speaker, furthermore, I cannot quite understand the gentleman because of his disposition to ask for a roll call at this particular time. Such was not the case with the bill in which he was interested. There was no roll call demanded, and therefore——

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Indiana is referring to a gentleman who was not discussing this subject.

Mr DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I am referring, Mr. Speaker, to a roll call.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, it was not demanded by any gentleman from Lackawanna.

Mr. DAVIS. I said the gentleman who just preceded me, the gentleman from Northumberland. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the time should not be taken up at this particular time for a roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McMullen and Mr. Van Alen and were as follows:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now take up the special order set for this hour.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1287, as follows:

An Act imposing a State tax on anthracite coal providing for the assessment and collection thereof and providing penalties for the violation of this act

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act each and every ton of anthracite coal of the weight of two thousand two hundred and forty (2,240) pounds advoirdupois mined washed screened or otherwise prepared for market in this Commonwealth shall be subject to a tax of one and one-half per centum (1½) of the value thereof when prepared for market which said tax shall be assessed at the time when said coal has been mined washed or screened and is ready for shipment or market

Section 2 It shall be the duty of the individual or the superintendent or other officer in charge of any mine or mines or washery or operation to assess the tax hereby imposed from time to time as the coal is mined washed or screened and is ready for shipment or market and to ascertain and assess daily the number of gross tons of coal so mind washed or screened and to fix the value thereof The said individual superntendent or other officer in charge of any such mine or mines washery or screening operation shall annually on or before the first day of February for the calendar year next preceeding a report in writing under oath to the Auditor General on forms prescribed and furnished by him stating specifically the number of gross tons of coal hereby made taxable and the assessed value thereof during the calendar year covered by the report and the amount of tax assessed thereon Provided That the report made on or before the fifteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two shall be for the portion of the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one remaining after this act becomes effective

If the Auditor General and State Treasurer or either of them is not satisfied with the assessment and estimate of valuation so made and returned as aforesaid they are hereby authorized and empowered to make an assessment and valuation based upon the facts contained in the report herein required or upon any information within their possession or that shall come into their possession and to settle an account on the assessment and valuation so made by them for the taxes penalties and interest due the Commonwealth therein with right to the person corporation company owner or operator dissatisfied with any settlement so made against him it or them to appeal therefrom in the manner now provided by law For the purpose of making such assessment and settlement said officers may require the production of such books papers and reports as may be necessary to enable them to assess and settle the tax In the event of the failure neglect or refusal of the individual superintendent or other officer in charge of any mine mines washery or screening operation to make the report and valuation to the Auditor General as hereinbefore provided on or before the first day of February in each and every year It shall be the duty of the Auditor General to estimate an assessment and valuation of the coal prepared for market by any person firm corporation owner or operator as aforesaid and settle an account for taxes penalty and interest thereon from which settlement there shall be no right of appeal

Every person firm corporation and every other owner operator or lessee of any mine mines washery or screening operation from which a report is required under the provisions of this act shall pay into the treasury of the Commonwealth the amount of tax herein imposed within sixty days from the date of settlement of the account by the Auditor General and State Treasurer plus a penalty of ten per centum for every failure to assess said tax and to make report as required by this act When any tax is settled it shall bear interest from sixty days after approval by the State Treasurer at the rate of one per centum per month until paid If any individual superintendent or other officer of any firm corporation limited partnership or joint stock association or any other owner partner or lessee of any mine mines washery or screening operation shall neglect or refuse to furnish the Auditor General on or before the fifteenth day of January of each and every year with the assessment and report as aforesaid as required by law or cause the same to be done or make or cause to be made any false report it shall be the duty of the accounting officers of the Commonwealth to add ten per centum to said tax for each and every year for which assessment and report were not so furnished which percentage shall be settled and collected with the said tax in the usual manner of settling accounts and collecting such taxes The Auditor General may upon application made before the first day of February in each and every year and upon proper cause shown extend the time of filing returns for a period of not exceeding fifteen days from the first day of February of the year in which the same are required to be filed

If said persons or officers or any of them shall intentionally make or cause to be made any false assessment and report or intentionally neglect or refuse to furnish the Auditor General with the assessment and report as required by law he or they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars ($500.00) and undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year or both or either at the discretion of the court

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall be independent of each other and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not effect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act nor prevent the collection of the tax imposed by this act It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 4 This act shall become effective on the first day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one

Section 5 The act of June first one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and twenty-one) entitled "An act imposing a State tax on anthracite coal providing for the assessment and collection of the said tax annually and dedicating the fund received from said tax and appropriating fifty per centum of the same to the construction maintenance improvement and repair of State Highways and the remaining fifty per centum to the several cities boroughs and townships from which said tax is derived and providing penalties for the violation of this act" is hereby repealed and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are also hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say that this is one of the revenue measures suggested by the Governor—a tax on anthracite coal. As it was originally introduced it called for a tax of two and one-half per centum, but it has been amended and reduced to one and one-half per centum per ton.

Mr. GIBBON. Mr. Speaker, it strikes me as unusual and rather strange that of all the industries in the state of Pennsylvania that the administration could only find the anthracite industry for this tax. There is no industry in the state of Pennsylvania in which Pennsylvania should have more pride. There is not a more dependable industry in the state as far as volume of business is concerned. It ranks second with all the industries in the state, passed only and exceeded by the iron and steel industry. In the year 1919 the business done by the anthracite coal industry was over three hundred and sixty-four million dollars. I have been trying to arrive at the reasons which moved the administration to fix on this industry for taxation purposes, and the only reason that I could possibly arrive at was the fact that we perhaps had a very limited representation in the House.

It might have been the easiest measure to get through. I have the utmost regard for the Governor of our State and for the men who are directing the affairs of this State, and these men have been no more loyally and faithfully supported during this session than by the members from the anthracite region, but we regard this bill as being unfair and we object to being discriminated against. I understand that this measure is being supported by the representatives who are members of the Legislative League. This league, as I understand it, is made up from members from the rural districts and farming communities, and I would just like to ask these gentlemen whether or not they would favor a bill taxing the products of their farms? It means just as much to us to oppose a proposition of this kind as it would mean to them to oppose a proposition of that kind. It would be just as easy for the farming interests to pass on the tax to the consumer as it would be for the anthracite operator, which I want to assure you is exactly what will happen if you pass this bill. A few years ago there was a taxing code passed which was finally declared unconstitutional, but between the time the bill was passed and the act was declared unconstitutional, quite a lot of money was collected. When the money was turned back afterwards to the dealers, a lot of the small coal dealers did not keep any account of the money they paid, so a great many of them who paid the tax at that time, did not receive their funds back. The anthracite coal industry employs about one hundred and sixty-five thousand men and boys. It is an industry that out community absolutely depends upon, and we feel that the passage of this bill will work a hardship on us. We are told by some of the people sponsoring this measure that eighty-five per cent. of the tax will be paid by the people outside of the State. I am willing to admit it is true that perhaps it will, but, gentlemen, every time the price of coal is advanced the production will be cut down. If this bill passes by the time the coal gets to the ultimate consumer it will mean about twenty-five cents a ton more.

It is going to decrease the production, and I am not entirely convinced that the burden will not be borne by the people of the anthracite region in reduced work and shorter hours. The price cannot be reduced unless the wages of the miners are reduced, and no one familiar with the work of mining coal or who knows anything about the skill and hard work, together with the danger incidental thereto, would be so uncharitable as to even suggest that the miner be paid less wages. This is a very discriminatory measure, and I would ask that you assist us in defeating it.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, it had not been my intention to take up any of the time of the House in view of the congested condition of the calendar, with any discussion of this measure. A thought or two, however, has been suggested by the gentleman from Luzerne, which I think demands a word of explanation or reply from me. One hundred and twenty-five years ago the natural resources of the State of Pennsylvania were greater than in any other state of the Union. It is unfortunate that our forefathers could not have looked ahead and have seen the great value to future generations of these natural resources and provided a revenue therefrom to the State. To-day the timber, the oil and the gas have very largely disappeared; bituminous coal is disappearing, and the anthracite coal is being depleted to the amount of eighty-nine millions of tons per year. During the last twenty years the anthracite coal mined in the State of Pennsylvania amounts to six hundred and fifty-four million tons, which at an average price of three dollars per ton, would amount to one billion nine hundred and sixty-four million dollars. Had the tax suggested under this bill been in existence during that time, the State would have had a revenue of twenty-nine million, four hundred and thirty-six dollars. On the basis of six dollars per ton, on the coal mined during 1920, the tax at one and one-half cents per ton would have amounted to $8,067,000. Eighty per cent. of that would have been paid by people living outside of the State of Pennsylvania, which would have left $1,600,000 of this tax to have been paid by people within the State.

Twenty-eight per cent. of the anthracite coal mined in the state of Pennsylvania is shipped to New York and tidewater points; ten per cent. to New England points; ten per cent. to points on the Great Lakes; ten per cent. to Canada; twenty per cent. is used in the State of Pennsylvania, with scattering amounts in other states. Now, gentlemen, this great natural resource of the State of Pennsylvania is fast being depleted, and if the State of Pennsylvania is ever to get any revenue from hard coal, it must begin now. The revenue from this source is needed to meet the increased cost to the State of the teachers salary bill.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, in the early days of this session, there was a resolution introduced into this House to investigate the conditions in the anthracite coal industry. The basis of that argument was that the price of coal was too high. Now, then, you propose in this bill to make it higher. I agree with the gentleman who spoke last in regard to the amount of anthracite coal used out of this State, but that does not lighten the burden of us people in the State who use it. I feel that the anthracite coal trade has been taxed to its limit, and I would ask the members of this House to vote against this coal tax.

MR. HESS IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Tioga.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, the bill as it was originally drawn, I understand, contained a proviso that the mine operators, owner, dealer or seller should not add to the selling price of coal more than the amount of this tax. That is, that the ultimate consumer should not have added to the price he pays for this coal, more than this tax. Now, if I understand the way this bill is printed that wholesome proposition has been eliminated. Am I correct in that?

Mr. WILLIAMS. You are.

Mr. OGLE. Can you assign any good reason for that?

Mr. WILLIAMS. The gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Dawson, will answer his neighbor, from Somerset.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I introduced the amendment which eliminated that provision in the original bill. The original bill, as it stood, upheld the levying of a tax on each individual ton of coal. Inasmuch as forty per cent. of the tonnage of the anthracite region is in direct competition with bituminous coal and after hearing the objection raised against the bill at the public hearing, we decided to amend the bill so that the tax would be placed on the public on any prepared sizes rather than to injure the industry in competitive coal.

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, that is a dangerous provision. I think so far as the ultimate consumer is concerned, if it were not for the fact that the receipt of this tax by the Commonwealth is an absolute necessity, under the present contingency, I would vote against the measure, but I am going to vote for it, notwithstanding this objectionable feature.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I feel that the tax on the anthracite coal industry would be really unfair; I don't think it would be fair to single out any one industry in this State and tax it. I am not so antagonistic against the industries of this Commonwealth as some men may wish to charge against me, because of this fact. It was early in the session when the resolution of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Glass, was before this body, that I felt that in taxing the anthracite industry we were crippling that industry in the market. I believe when we consider the bituminous coal fields the reason for not tacking additional taxation on bituminous coal, and why we should not do so, was for the reason that they were placed in competition with other states, such as West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky and many of the other states. We do not want to place our anthracite coal industry against unfair competition in outlying districts. I feel in this matter as the miners' organizations in the anthracite coal fields felt at that time, that it would be unfair to single out the coal industry for additional taxation. We also feel that if this tax would be passed and then again a tax on companies in the matter of mine caves, it would be casting too much of a burden upon that industry. I have read in the various papers in other states where they are now agitating the markets in the bituminous fields that it should not be placed, on that industry, and I also feel here that we should not single out the anthracite industry and run them out of the markets. In the other states they are in competition and only eighty per cent. of our coal is sold up in our State. For that reason and because of the feeling of the miners that it would be an imposition, we do not want the blame thrown upon the miners in this country to the effect that we are agitating for higher wages. We want to protect the industries inside of our own State.

Mr. PHILIP H. DEWEY. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. I think it is important that we secure revenue to carry on the program which has been mapped out. We have a program outlined for the maintenance of our hospitals and other institutions beyond the revenue that has been provided for, and here is a bill that provides something to help out. There are men in this State who are paying a tax of sixty-five mills on a dollar for every dollar they possess and I am paying forty-five mills on every dollar that I possess.

Some of the corporative interests in the State of Pennsylvania are paying five mills on the capital stock and others are paying nothing on their capital stock and if men who are paying forty-five mills on the dollar and sixty-five mills on the dollar do not object to stand their share of the affairs of this kind, it seems to me that a small percentage like the percentage in this bill ought to be so little, and so insignificant that none of the rest should object. No one would be hurt; no one would go out of business. It would not mean twenty-five cents to most of us in a year's time. It has been shown here that eighty-five percent of this is paid by persons outside of the State, and if that be so then only fifteen percent would have to be paid by those in the state. We want better roads, we want better schools, we want better hospitals, we want those things more than we need some others that have been voted on here. It has been intimated to me that at this time it would be inexpedient to raise a question of this kind, but I want to say to you, and those men who are occupying these chairs here that it is time to show your constituents back home that you are willing to stand before a moral and economic question. If you are not, these chairs ought to be and will be occupied by men like those fellows who went over the top in the battle fields of France, who were not afraid of men, machine guns or devils. We need men who will stand up and be counted; men who will stand the acid test; men who think more of duty than of position; men who think more of justice than they do of praise; we want men who will fight the good fight of right though they may be unmercifully persecuted by those who would conspire to make their living more expensive, their rents higher, and their doctor bills to become unbearable and the undertaker to take what is left when they shuffled off this mortal coil. We want men who will step out and vote for this bill and help to put Pennsylvania, our Keystone State, on the map where she belongs, the first State in the Union. We should not be satisfied until we have the best roads, the best schools, and above all, and beyond all, and the best of all, the best statesmanship.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 20, 1921.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: In conformity with Section 7 of an Act entitled, "An act authorizing the issue and sale of bonds to the amount of fifty millions of dollars by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; defining the powers and duties of the Governor, the Auditor General and the State Treasurer, in relation thereto; making an appropriation of the proceeds of such bonds for the purpose of improving and rebuilding the highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the payment of interest on, and the redemption of such bonds by the Sinking Fund Commission; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of this act," approved the 18th day of April, A. D. 1919, you are hereby informed that there has been borrowed on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the sum of $23,800,000 for the purpose of improving and rebuilding the highways of the Commonwealth, and as evidence of the indebtedness there have been issued bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Series "A", in the sum of $12,000,000 under date of July 1, 1919, bearing interest at four and one-quarter per centum (4¼%) per annum, and $11,800,000 of similar bonds, known as Series "B", under date of August 2, 1920, bearing interest at four and one-half per centum (4½%) per annum.

In continuing the State's highway program, and should conditions continue favorable it is my purpose to borrow the remainder of the $50,000,000 authorized to be borrowed, as follows:

$15,000,000 on or about July 1, 1921, and $11,200,000 on or about July 1, 1922,

Respectfully,

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 1184.

An Act for the relief of persons copartnerships associations and corporations from certain completed and uncompleted contracts entered into with the Commonwealth and which on account of war and post-war conditions caused financial loss creating a board of claims to adjust moral and equitable claims arising from heads of departments bureaus boards divisions and commissions of the Commonwealth who executed such contracts providing for the determination and payment of such moral and equitable claims and for the dismissing of petitions allowing appeals in such cases and making an appropriation with the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend by striking out entire title and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

An act authorizing the Governor to appoint a board of claims to hear audit dismiss or adjust moral and equitable claims against the Commonwealth arising from the execution of certain contracts for the construction and reconstruction of highways and making an appropriation

Amend page 2 section 1 by striking out lines 4 to 17 inclusive and inserting in lieu thereof the following

"A board of claims hereinafter called "the board" is hereby created consisting of three persons to be appointed by the Governor The Governor shall fix the compensation of the members of said board The said board shall have power to receive and consider petitions from persons copartnerships associations and corporations hereinafter called "the contractor" praying for the hearing auditing and adjusting of moral and equitable claims against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania arising from contracts with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the construction and reconstruction of highways entered into or in course of completion between January first one thousand nine hundred and nineteen and December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty inclusive whether such contracts have been completed or remain uncompleted

Amend by striking out section 2 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 2 Any contractor may present a petition to the board setting forth any one or more of the following allegations (a) That he entered into a contract with the Commonwealth (b) that he suffered financial loss in the execution of said contract stating the amount of such financial loss (c) that such financial loss was caused by matters beyond the control of the contractor such as strikes scarcity of labor and materials increase in the cost of labor and materials railroad strikes embargos priority orders increase in freight rates cancellation of contracts by material men (d) any other reasons upon which he bases his claim against the Commonwealth and (e) that by reason of such loss he has a moral and equitable claim against the Commonwealth

Whereupon it shall be the duty of the board to consider said petition and upon the facts contained in said petition or upon said facts and any information within its possession or that it may otherwise secure deterime whether or not the claim of said contractor is meritorious and such as to entitle him to a hearing before said board If the board shall deterime that the claim is without merit it shall make an order refusing a hearing which order shall be final If the board shall determine that the claim is meritorious and that the contractor is entitled to a hearing it shall make an order fixing a time and place when and where the contractor may be heard and shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place fixed for such hearing to the petitioner the Attorney General and the State Highway Commissioner After a full hearing of the matter the board shall have power to determine whether or not the contractor is entitled to compensation for any financial loss which he may have sustained and to fix the amount thereof or dismiss the petition as to right and justice shall appertain"

Amend by striking out section 3 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 3 "Whenever after hearing and determination of any claim as aforesaid the board shall find in favor of the contractor and fix the amount to which the contractor is entitled the amount so fixed shall be final and conclusive against the contractor and the Commonwealth without right of appeal"

Amend by striking out section 4, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 4 "Any final order or award of the board shall be paid from appropriations made or to be made by the General Assembly to the said Highway Department for road construction purposes"

Amend by striking out section 5, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 5 "The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated to the payment of the compensation costs and expenses of said board to be drawn upon the requisition of the chairman thereof and paid as other appropriations are now by law paid"

Amend by striking out sections 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like the House to look at this amendment to House Bill No. 1184, file folio 4995. You will notice that the title of the act as originally proposed was

" For the relief of persons copartnerships associations and corporations from certain completed and uncompleted contracts entered into with the Commonwealth and which on account of war and post-war conditions caused financial loss creating a board of claims to adjust moral and equitable claims arising from such contracts imposing certain powers and duties upon the heads of departments bureaus boards divisions and commissions of the Commonwealth who executed such contracts providing for the determination and payment of such moral and equitable claims and for the dismissing of petitions allowing appeals in such cases and making an appropriation"

Now, we see that this is all stricken out in the amendment, and in its place they have written in this:

"Authorizing the Governor to appoint a board of claims to hear audit dismiss or adjust moral and equitable claims against the Commonwealth arising from the execution of certain contracts for the construction and reconstruction of highways and making an appropriation"

Why should that change be made to make it so broad as to take in other contracts? Why should that change be made? It seems to me that the title in the first place restricted it to a very narrow margin. At the best, this is not a good kind of law, and it should be restricted to a very narrow margin if it is to be passed. Then, why has it been broadened by the change of the title? I think before the House acts on this finally, that we should understand why this change was made and therefore in order that this might be properly examined, I move that the House do non-concur in these amendments. Of course, if we do not concur, then the bill will go back and a committee will be appointed and we can then look into it. If it is a proper change then it can be passed later on, so my motion is made that the House do non-concur in these amendments.

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. Speaker, I would ask that the amendments be read the second time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows: "Amend by striking out entire title and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Authorizing the Governor to appoint a board of claims to hear audit dismiss or adjust moral and equitable claims against the Commonwealth arising from the execution of certain contracts for the construction and reconstruction of highways and making an appropriation"

Amend page 2, section 1, by striking out lines 4 to 17 inclusive and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"A board of claims hereinafter called 'the board' is hereby created consisting of three persons to be appointed by the Governor The Governor shall fix the compensation of the members of said board The said board shall have power to receive and consider petitions from persons copartnerships associations and corporations hereinafter called 'the contractor' praying for the hearing auditing and adjusting of moral and equitable claims against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania arising from contracts with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the construction and reconstruction of highways entered into or in course of completion between January first one thousand nine hundred and nineteen and December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty inclusive whether such contracts have been completed or remain uncompleted"

Amend by striking out section 2, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 2 Any contractor may present a petition to the board setting forth any one or more of the following allegations (a) That he entered into a contract with the Commonwealth (b) that he suffered financial loss in the execution of said contract stating the amount of such financial loss (c) that such financial loss was caused by matters beyond the control of the contractor such as strikes scarity of labor and materials increase in the cost of labor and materials railroad strikes embargos priority orders increase in freight rates cancellation of contracts by materials men (d) any other reasons upon which he bases his claim against the Commonwealth and (e) that by reason of such loss he has a moral and equitable claim against the Commonwealth

Whereupon it shall be the duty of the board to consider said petition and upon the facts contained in said petition or upon said facts and any information within its possession or that it may otherwise secure determine whether or not the claim of said contractor is meritorious and such as to entitle him to a hearing before said board If the board shall determine that the claim is without merit it shall make an order refusing a hearing which order shall be final If the board shall determine that the claim is meritorious and that the contractor is entitled to a hearing it shall make an order fixing a time and place when and where the contractor may be heard and shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place fixed for such hearing to the petitioner the Attorney General and the State Highway Commissioner After a full hearing of the matter the board shall have power to determine whether or not the contractor is entitled to compensation for any financial loss which he may have sustained and to fix the amount thereof or dismiss the petition as to right and justice shall appertain"

Amend by striking out section 3, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 3 Whenever after hearing and determination of any claim as aforesaid the board shall find in favor of the contractor and fix the amount to which the contractor is entitled the amount so fixed shall be final and conclusive against the contractor and the Commonwealth without right of appeal"

Amend by striking out section 4, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 4 Any final order or award of the board shall be paid from appropriations made or to be made by the General Assembly to the said Highway Department for road construction purposes"

Amend by striking out section 5, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 5 The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated to the payment of the compensation costs and expenses of said board to be drawn upon the requisition of the chairman thereof and paid as other appropriations are now by law paid"

Amend by striking out sections 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to, and the amendments were non-concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 873, as follows:

An Act authorizing a State Association of Township Supervisors and Township Commissioners and providing for the payment of the expenses thereof by the respective counties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the formation of a State Association of Township Supervisors and Commissioners is hereby authorized The association shall hold annual meetings at such time and place within the Commonwealth as it may designate for the purpose of discussing various questions and subjects pertaining to the duties of township supervisors and township commissioners and for the purpose of devising uniform economical and efficient methods of administering the affairs of townships

Section 2 Each county association of township supervisors and commissioners shall send one township supervisor or commissioner for each ten townships or fraction thereof within said county as a delegate to each annual meeting of said State Association

Section 3 The expenses of the delegates attending the annual meeting shall not exceed four dollars per day for each delegate for not more than three days together with the actual mileage at the prevailing rate of railroad fare and shall be paid by the respective county associations

Section 4 The expenses of the annual meeting including expenses of committees printing and stenographers shall be paid pro rata by the respective county associations and shall not exceed ten dollars for each county association

Section 5 Within thirty days after each annual meeting of the State Association the treasurer of the respective county association shall file with the county treasurer an itemized statement under oath setting forth where and when the annual meeting of the State Association was held the number of delegates from the respective association in attendance and the expenditures due from the county association for such annual meeting

Section 6 The county treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of the respective county association out of the county funds the amount expended by the county association under the provisions of this act

Section 7 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are repealed

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 10 of to-day's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 372, file folio 4159.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Fowler.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 372, entitled:

An Act to promote the public health by providing for one day in seven for employes in certain employments

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. This is House Bill No. 372 providing for one day's rest in seven. Permit me to say, gentlemen of the House, that I most emphatically agree that wherever it is at all possible a workman ought to have one day's rest in seven, but I submit to you that under existing law where it is possible workmen are now getting one day's rest in seven, and that this bill if it were to become a law, would place a very considerable hardship upon industry. In many instances the provisions are such as would make it almost impossible to carry them out. Under the provisions of this bill the employer is compelled, according to section 3,

"Before operating on Sunday every employer shall post in a conspicuous place on the premises a schedule containing a list of his employes who are required or allowed to work on Sunday and designating the day of rest for each and shall file a copy of such schedule with the Commissioner of Labor The employer shall promptly fie with the said commissioner a copy of every change in such schedule"

Any gentleman in this House who during the past four or five years has been conducting an industrial establishment knows how entirely impossible these conditions would have been if they had existed during that period. You could have posted a list of your most trusted men whom you might have selected to work on Sunday and have asked the Department of Labor and Industry to grant permission to these particular individuals to work on the day of rest, but time and again and again the attendance of the workman was so interrupted, for one reason or another, that any industry compelled to operate on Sunday would when the morning would have arrived found these men were not present, or some of them, and the employer would be compelled to call in other workmen who were not posted on the list and whose names were not O. K.'d by the Department of Labor and Industry, and he would have rendered himself subject to a fine of $100 and up under this bill or his business would have been paralyzed. Take a plant like that of a sulphuric acid plant, with which I am familiar, and it is impossible to close down a plant like that. Furthermore, it is absolutely impossible to take a man who has no experience and place him in a plant of that kind because it would be entirely possible for a man who is not familiar with the duties in that plant to do more injury in such a plant in twenty-four hours than would make it possible to be put under proper operation again in six days. So, I submit to this House, that while I strongly favor the bill for any industries that can be operated under seven days, but under existing conditions, with the laws on the statute books to-day, practically every man is getting one day's rest in seven, if he wants it, and this is an irksome condition which is unnecessary, according to the provisions of this bill, in order to bring about that result.

Mr. JEFFERSON SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. JEFFERSON SMITH. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not know that the largest employer in the United States allows one day's rest to their employes?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I do; so do the smaller ones.

Mr. JEFFERSON SMITH. Mr Speaker, I was an employee in the post office department, the largest employer in the United States, for seventeen years, and I want to say to you and to the gentlemen of the House here, that as the largest employer of labor of any plant in the United States, the Post Office Department, by an Act of Congress so arranged it that every man had one day out of seven for rest. I don't think there is any business man who cannot arrange his business affairs as the post office of the United States did, and I hope that this bill will pass.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I don't see where the gentleman from Lancaster need worry about any plant not being able to comply with these conditions. If he would go further into the bill and read an amendment attached to this bill to the effect that in any industry where it is impossible to put the six day practice into effect, it is up to the Industrial Board of this State to so regulate it, and it is entrely up to them. This is a law that is fair. A supreme law concerning hours of labor was this: "Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath." We realize that it is impossible in many industries to shut down the industry on the Sabbath day, but the question that the gentleman from Lancaster raised in regard to placing a notice in any plants in regard to working on the Sabbath day, that it shall be so printed, and let me not be accused that this bill, being introduced by labor men, is confined to the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor or any other labor organization, but we find that the Pennsylvania Federation of Churches have also endorsed this bill; we find that the Y. M. C. A.'s of the various sections have also endorsed this bill and that some of the corporations, those who had believed in the seventh day of Labor, such men as Mr. Gary, who undertook to abuse labor just a few nights ago, also said that it would be practical to put a six day working week into effect. I believe that with any industry which is desirous to work on the seventh day like the steel industry, that there will be no difficulty about it. We find now that the steel industry is advocating six days work. Take for instance during the war, in England, when she first went into the war they adopted a seven day week and a twelve hour day for each day in the week.

I am not quoting the statistics of radical organizations but of the United States Government, ad of the government officials of other countries. The seven day week was continued in England, efficiency went down and the munition factories were running behind. The war was going on and the soldiers at the front were being made short of munitions and the commissions decided in England that they would make an investigation and they found this: That the seven day week was detrimental to the welfare of the people of England, and they cut down the seven day week and during the war they re-established the six day week, and increased the production in England during the war.

We will say another thing, that even in this country we heard the agitation that was sprung that if the eight hour day was established production would be decreased, we heard that in the arguments of the various industries. We will see. The one hundred and seventy-five thousand coal miners in the anthracite coal fields produced on an average two hundred and seventy-two working days during the war, they were reduced in hours from nine to eight, and working under those reduced hours from nine to eight, with forty-five thousand less men, forty-five thousand men that left the anthracite industry and went into the munition factories and went into the trenches in France where they fought for Democracy, and with forty-five thousand less men, those miners produced forty million tons more coal working an eight hour day than were ever produced in the history of America. You kill in the anthracite industry on an average of two and a half men a day. Eight men are injured in the State of Pennsylvania during a working day. You kill over three thousand men annually and you injure over fifty-six thousand. I tell you my friends, that when our boys were fighting in France and when we heard of ten; or of twenty, or of one hundred, or of two hundred of the federal soldiers being killed in France our state was in mourning; but when we were faced with the fact that three thousand industrial soldiers gave up their lives in the industries of Pennsylvania, we shut our eyes.

I have attended an efficiency conference in this very room called by the Department of Labor and Industry. In that efficiency conference were representative men of the steam industry, men of the railroad, men of labor, and the opinion of all was that we must give proper rest to the industrial soldier. We know that when a man is working under regular hours and has proper rest and proper time to think there is an increase in efficiency and an increase in production. I will dare the gentleman from Lancaster to point out to me any industry in the State of Pennsylvania, where those who have worked eight hours per day have not increased production during the war or any other time. Let me say to you that in this country there are two million less accidents every year. Twenty-two thousand five hundred men are killed in the industries of America annually. Fifteen thousand are permanently disabled. Now then men, our soldiers in the industries do they not deserve protection, do they not deserve proper rest when we can absolutely prove to you that it is because of over work that two-thirds of the accidents take place in this country,—because of over work and fatigue. I say to you I have talked to members of this House and we talked about the poor fellow who is working in the industries and I have heard the men in this House say we are working too many hours, we are working so long a day that it is becoming so fatiguing that we cannot even think what is on the calendar. That is true and you will agree with me men. (I am saying this so that it will relieve you boys a little.) Let me say to the gentleman from Lancaster he has fought me on several occasions, and I have nothing against the gentleman, because I consider him a worthy opponent, he always is fighing me, and he and I are just as good friends as any two men in this House, but let us argue this point, and let me show you what the miners of this country did, and we will take all other countries, Great Britain in 1901, 309 tons of coal per man; Germany 274; France 218; Belgium 183; Austria 184; Japan 125; India 90 and America 605. Listen! In 1911 the United States miners produced per man uder an eight hour working day 942 tons of coal per man; Great Britain 290, and Germany as we called it "that efficient government" at that time produced 182 tons per man. America 942! We find here after the American workman has shown conclusively that he has defeated your argument, by the fact that he has worked and what he has produced you are trying to tell us to-night that he is not entitled to one day of rest. Gentlemen I hope and trust that you will put this bill over. There is nothing in the act that will prevent an industry from employing men seven days, the Department of Labor and Industry will grant you that right. It only affects those industries that can work six days a week, that is all. Where it is absolutely necessary, we will all agree that you must keep the wheels of industry in operation. I trust you will vote for this measure this evening.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, as I said before I am heartily in favor of what the gentleman has said relative to getting one day's rest in a week. I am just as proud of the fact that the American miner produced 900 tons of coal per man as he is, but I submit to this House that they did that without this law, and I wonder if they would produce more tons of coal per man per year if they had this law, which says that every employer shall keep a time book showing the names and addresses of all employees and the hours worked by each of them in each day and such time book shall be open to inspection by the Commissioner of Labor. It seems that a certain number,—and you can let your imagination run as to what that number will be—of men will be employed to travel all over this country to study the time books. This legislation is not necessary. You and I are familiar with conditions about us. In the midst of the war period, when production was needed as never before in your recollection or my recollection, you could go into any of the industrial towns—I know it is true in the eastern part of the State—and find mighty few men working just enough to keep steam in the boilers and to keep the places guarded. This legislation is not necessary and that provision which says that "every employer who violates the provisions of this act or any of them shall be liable to the State for a penalty" is wrong and burdensome and without any possibility of being of any benefit to the men who want to work. I trust the House will vote it down.

Mr. McOWEN. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was before the Labor and Industry Committee, Mr. Fowler did not say it was a labor bill. The matter was referred to a sub-committee of which I was a member. Mr. Fowler then told me it was not strictly a labor bill, and the only labor man who appeared before the committee was Mr. Maurer, and he said the bill was not presented at the suggestion of organized labor, but that it was suggested by some Christian association, that Mr. Fowler presented the bill at the suggestion of some Christian association. At the public hearing there were only two men who appeared before the comntee in favor of the bill. I simply make this statement to the House for fear you might think it was a labor bill, when, as a matter of fact, it is not.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry that I am not allowed to introduce anything else in the House except labor measures. I believe, as an American citizen, that I even have the right to introduce a bill calling for an increase in taxes, if Mr. Alexander will permit. I believe I have that right. I will say to you that labor is behind this bill. So far as organized labor is concerned, organized labor will take care of itself. The story has gone out that agitators of my stripe are not working in the interests of the men who do not belong to labor unions. I am for the laboring man, whether he belongs to organized labor or disorganized labor, it makes no difference to me. Surely the churches ought to have some consideration, even if labor does not, in this House. There has been a campaign conducted by the various Sabbath associations throughout this State and practically every one of them, not only labor, not only the churches, but that great antagonist of all union labor, Gary himself, has said that six days a week and no more should be the length of time for working. He said that the time has now come when we have got to recognize that industry, to increase its efficiency, must give the proper rest to its employees, that they have that right. You will remember that if you read the newspapers, and surely no one will accuse me of being the mouth-piece of Gary. I say to you that if organized labor was as antagonistic to some interests as they are to us, we would enforce the Blue Laws of this State and cripple the industries, and if we would do that, the laboring man would be accused of being an anarchist or a Bolshevist. Let me say to you that labor in this State is now standing the test. The time has come in the movement when we have taken insult upon insult. The conservative leadership of the Federation of Labor is being thrust at by the newspapers throughout the country. I say to you, whip labor if you will, trim us, give us no consideration, and after you have succeeded, I am going to ask you one question. You have laid the foundation in this country for a revolution when you crush the trade union movement. You have proven to the radical element, proven to the Bolshevist, proven to the anarchist, that the conservative leadership has lost its hold, lost its power among the laboring man, and you are going to crush them. After you have crushed the trade movement you have nothing left but the radical leadership and the result will be that the poor fellow who toils will follow him, not the conservative leader. I say to you that the conservative labor leaders of this country have time and again come into this hall. I believe my remarks in the past will bear out this statement. If you want to quell Bolshevism in America, give us proper working hours, give us the proper time for recreation, time for study, proper laws to take care of us when we are down and out, proper laws to take care of those of us who are injured, and I say to you that you have laid a foundation where you will quell all anarchy and Boshevism in America. But you have asked us to come here and you have laughed at us. Are we not men, warmed by the same summer sun? Are we not men, made cold by the same wintery blasts? But if you pass us up cold there will be only one other thing to do, and that is to go back to the industry and settle it in the old-fashioned way, by strike. We are trying to avoid that. Yes, perhaps I was influenced by the Sunday schools and by the churches to introduce this, and I say that because the churches have made an investigation of the steel strike, and in their investigation they saw the bad system of the corporations that Mr. Gary himself has seen. He has seen the handwriting on the wall and he is going to give what the churches said was necessary, proper recreation and proper rest and the worker will increase the production and we will all be as we should be, brotherly with one another.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I am satisfied that it is about time that someone took up these questions from a purely disinterested standpoint. I am satisfied that this is more of a moral question than it is a labor question, than it is a labor or economic question, and I am more than pleased to know that these moral questions are having the support and sanction of men in this and other legislative bodies throughout the United States. I just take it upon myself as an individual, unhampered by an entangling alliance, to say that this bill demands from us the earnest consideration that its merits call for. I was somewhat shocked a few moments ago in regard to the scriptural quotation as offered by our friend and colleague from Lackawanna county to hear some unpleasant remarks passed by different members in this House and by others.

I suppose they thought it was something coming from the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Fowler, to have the Decalogue quoted, or a part of it. We have gotten to that point that we are not astonished at anything that may happen in this House. There are various things other than quoting scriptures in this House, and things surrounding it. I think, as it was stated on the floor of the House this afternoon, that it is about a time that some of us get down to brass tacks and endeavored to do something in the direction of passing really constructive legislation. We know that there have been threats made on other questions and on other issues, as there have been threats made tonight. We believe that these things should be eliminated. We believe that we are standing for good things, for truly good things, in fact. And, Mr. Speaker, you saw that fine body of young people representing one of our State high schools in the gallery today. Gentlemen of the House, you must agree with me when I say that those children went away from this place with not a very high regard for the way in which some men conducted themselves. We saw that in those young men and those young women. We have heard of measures talked to death; in fact we have seen them chloroformed with a gas that is worse than the poison gas of the Fields of Flanders. From the truly humanitarian standpoint, I say, coming from an industrial region such as I do come from, that six days a week is enough for a man and for boys and women and girls to labor. I am satisfied, mark me, I am satisfied that there are enough men here tonight who are truly desirous to bring about the desired result and vote to pass this bill, put it over so that the proper methods by our employers may be put into action.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following: Messrs. Heffernan, Woodruff, Conner, Haws, Vickerman, McVicar, Hess, Sowers, J. A. Walker, Dithrich, Whitehouse, Harry, Krause, Howard Smith, Haines, Dunn, Griffith, Franklin, Pike and Whitaker.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question,

On the question,

Shall the main question now be put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time, from page 9 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, Senate Bill No. 557, (House Bill No. 1152).

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Dithrich,

The House resumed the consideration and final passage of House Bill No. 1152, (Senate Bill No. 557), entitled

An Act to amend section eight of an act approved the seventeenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws eighty-five) entitled "An act for the better protection of wild birds and game within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania requiring citizens of the United States residing within this State to procure a license before using guns for the purpose of hunting for any wild birds or animals protected by the law of this Commonwealth and providing penalties for violation of its several provisions and the manner of proceeding to enforce compliance therewith and providing for the disposition of the license fees fines and penalties received"

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHAPLIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call your attention to this bill in view of the fact that you might call it a salary raiser, but it is in a different form from those which we have had in other bills. This bill supplies a fund for the county officers of the respective counties the privilege of taking ten cents of each hunter's license for the purpose of giving it to the treasurer of that county in addition to the salary which he is now receiving. If this bill passes it will take from the receipts of the hunter's license fund $40,000. Being a member of the United Sportsmen's Association, I fell it my duty to explain to this House just exactly what this bill will do. Gentlemen of the House, I cannot find any reason for this bill being passed. I feel that the treasurers in counties are receiving sufficient compensation at this time. If it were going to supply the treasurer the fund for the purpose of defraying their own expenses, then I think there might be some merit in it, but in this way it goes into the county treasurer's pocket, in addition to the salary which he now receives. I hope that the bill will be defeated.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, answering the gentleman from Cambria, he apparently is unaware that this is not taking anything from the hunter's license fund that is going into the treasury at the present time. The county now retains ten cents from this so that it is not taking it away from the State hunter's fund, the license fund that would go into the State treasury. Instead of going into the county treasury it is paid to the county treasurer for service rendered. Now, in the fisheries license bill the treasurer is allowed to retain that amount, in each respective county, for his services. One must realize that the county treasurer is responsible for this fund. It is collected by sub-agents throughout the county. He is responsible for any duplication in the work. I submit, in view of the fact that it is allowed in the collecting of the fisherman's license, that it should be allowed in this. It is not a salary raiser; it is just compensating the county treasurer for additional duty and service and for responsibility in the collection of this fund. It takes nothing away from the amount the State would receive. It simply converts it from the one to the other for taking the responsibility of collecting it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

APPROPRIATION BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, by agreement with the sponsor I call up on page 4 of the calendar, appropriation bill on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 845.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Hess,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 845, entitled:

An Act creating a commission to secure a site and to establish and conduct a state fair and making an appropriation therefor

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JORDAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is known as the state fair bill. The question will be asked at the outset who are interested in this bill and by whom was the bill drawn? The bill was drawn by leading men in agriculture in fellowship and co-operation with the Secretary of Agriculture and the Governor of this State. This bill has back of it not merely agriculture, but it has the support of the Chambers of Commerce of this State. In the hearing the president of the State Chamber of Commerce was here in support of the State fair. It has back of it the Banker's Association of this State. In the hearing the Secretary of the Banker's Association presented his favorable views. It has back of it the State Grange, and it has back of it the arricultural organizations of this State, and back of it the implement manufacturers of this State. They are all urging the passage of this bill and the establishement of a state fair.

What is the purpose of a state fair? The purpose is educational, and inspirational. A state fair industrial and agricultural as this is intended to be is a mighty means of inspiration and education. Here the manufacturers of farming implements and the farmers come and present what they have produced and come and see what has been produced. If an agriculturist from the west end of the state or the east end comes to this fair and sees what can be produced in grains, in fruits, in stock, the quickening will be to go back and do likewise. A boy coming down here and seeing the best of animals, seeing the development of agricultural implements, seeing the display of our great industry will say we will look higher educationally and inspirationally in order that we may be better and in order that agriculture may be stimulated on a wider scale. Our State is seventh in agricultural wealth. It was twenty-first just ten years ago and has developed to that extent. It is up to us my friends to develop agriculture here in order that we may produce food besides the factory, in order that we may produce wool beside the woolen mills, in order that we may produce right here our agricultural implement factories.

Gentlemen, it is a rather startling fact that in our great state where we manufacture steel we have scarcely an implement factory worthy the name. We go to Ohio and it is dotted all over with factories of that kind. We go to Indiana where they manufacture our tractors and implements. With a great fair in our centre all the people that manufacture steel would begin to say, "we will turn out more finished products right here at home." Inspiration and education.

It may be said by whom will this be manned? By a commission. A commission composed of the Governor, the Secretary of Agriculture and five other members or as it will be amended, by seven other members appointed by the Governor. These men, gentlemen, will be without salary. Men who will give their time and their energies for the development of this institution. What funds will be necessary for its development? An appropriation is carried in this bill of fifteen thousand dollars. Fifteen thousand dollars for the purpose of paying the expenses of this Commission in their efforts to locate a suitable site and in their travels over this country to learn what other states have done. Other states have done this work. Men, twenty-seven other states around about Pennsylvania have great fairs, have had them for from ten to fifty years. There are no other agricultural states immediately adjoining us equal to us in wealth. If they have them, should not we have them? It will become a tremendous drain. Where this fair has been carried on in other states that has not been the result. The state fair of Ohio has paid dividends year after year. The same is true of other states that we could mention if we were given the time for the presentation of these facts. Will it kill the county fair? That question has been brought up to you. I want to say right here and now, if it would kill out county fairs, I for one tonight would try to kill the state fair. The state fair, as the county fairs my friends, are significant, and as they come up and see this fair they will go home and receive an inspiration to be better. The appropriation for the county fairs is as large for the coming year as it was before, and in the states where they have state fairs the appropriations are larger than where they do not have the fairs, and the fairs have been proven better. This is a movement that has been thought out carefully, and it is a movement that I believe this State will take up and that it will put on a fair second to none. We are as good as any of our surrounding states. We should be first in fairs, and first in education as well as in coal and as in the manufacture of iron and of steel.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I just want to call your attention to several of the provisions of this bill. When the bill was first introduced into the committee it carried an appropriation of $250,000. At the present time the appropriation carried by this bill is reduced to $15,000. Now for a moment let us see what the commission is presumed to do with $15,000. We will start with section two.

"Section 2 As soon as may be the commission first appointed shall organize by the election of a permanent chairman and thereafter the commission shall organize at Harrisburg on the fourth Wednesday of January of each year The commission shall at each organization meeting appoint a secretary a treasurer and a general manager neither of whom shall be members of the commission The commission shall define the duties of the secretary treasurer and general manager and shall fix their salaries and each of said officers shall give bond to the Commonwealth for the faithful performance of their duties in such amount as the commission shall determine The members of the commission shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for all expenses actually incurred in the discharge of their official duties

Section 3 Immediately after its first organization the commission in conjunction with the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings shall select and purchase a suitable and adequate site for the location of a State fair In all matters relating to the selection and procuring of a site the erection and construction of buildings and permanent improvement to the grounds the members of the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings shall be members of the commission The title to any lands purchased shall be taken in the name of the Commonwealth and shall be approved by the Attorney General

Section 4 As soon as a site has been selected and purchased the commission together with the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings shall proceed with the improvements of said grounds and with the erection construction and equipment of the necessary buildings and appurtenances for the operation of a State fair and for such purposes the commission may in the name of the Commonwealth enter into such contract or contracts as may be deemed necessary," and so on.

And all for $15,000,—some fair; Now, there is not a gentleman in the House who does not know that this proposition is absolutely ridiculous. This bill does not mean that you will spend $15,000, you are not considering any $15,000 proposition. If you pass this bill you are considering a $5,000,000 proposition. The State fair plants in the adjoining states have cost as much as $5,000,000, and take it from me, when Pennsylvania starts to construct a state fair, she is not going to construct any less of a plant than in Ohio or New York or any other adjoining state. I wish to bring strongly to your attention, that when you vote on this bill you are not voting on a proposition of $15,000 at all, but you are voting on something that will cost at least $5,000,000. Some plum tree! Now, gentlemen, I will make this observation with reference to this fair. I am in favor of a state fair, and I am in favor of Pennsylvania having a state fair that will compare with any state fair in the United States of America, but I will make this observation with reference to it; that if you want a state fair in Pennsylvania that will not be a state fair plum tree, if you want a state fair in Pennsylvania in which the people will be interested in putting their energy and money into it, why not organize the state fair along the lines that the New England states organize their state fairs? The New England states have organized what they call the Eastern Agricultural and Industrial Association, composed of men interested in exhibiting their products and who could well afford to do it. They went down into their pockets and subscribed the money to buy the stock of that organization, and it was their organization. Today it is one of the most creditable organizations of its kind in the United States. The secretary of that organization, who appeared here at a hearing a few weeks ago, informed me that that organization today is a thoroughly prosperous one and is making money annually. Now, what would be the result of this proposition if voted through? We have today some sixty-seven county fairs in the State of Pennsylvania. Every one of the sixty-seven county fairs in the State of Pennsylvania is financed by the money of those interested in the fairs. Is it fair, gentlemen, to place in competition with those sixty-seven institutions an institution that can draw on the treasury of Pennsylvania for its funds? The result would be that the county fairs could not compete at all, and in a very short time would be driven out of business. I believe we should have a state fair, but I do not believe this is the most economical and best way to proceed to get it, and I believe under the circumstances you should vote this bill down.

MR. FLYNN IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. JORDAN. Mr. Speaker, I did so enjoy the remarks of the gentleman from Lancaster. This great economical wave that is sweeping over the State today almost impoverishes me. No man said or even hinted that $15,000 would build a state fair. It was made clear that the $15,000 was for the instituting of this project, for the looking up of a suitable site, for the securing of plans and visiting other fairs in the different parts of this country. We know it will cost some money, but gentlemen, if the state of Ohio can conduct a fair and make money, and if as my friend from Lancaster says, the New England fair can make money, haven't we as good business brains here as they have in New England? I heard somebody say, "No." To that man I say, "You go to New England, there is no place for you in this State." I think that if the New England fair made money, our fair can make money. They made money in Minnesota, Iowa and in Ohio, and that money is turned back into the treasury. I could take time and give you the exact figures, but it would take too long. They made money in Wisconsin. Of course, it will take money to establish this in Pennsylvania, but we will be making money out of the development of the live stock industry in this State. Let me say to the gentleman from Lancaster that the Farm Extension Bureau of Pennsylvania last year imported $25,000 worth of pure bred hogs from the state of Ohio to start pig clubs in this State because we did not have such pure bred hogs in this State. $25,000 worth,—he told me so. The head of the extension work has imported fifty-eight carloads this spring of pure seed from Michigan. Why would it not be a good thing to breed pure hogs and raise pure potatoes in our old Keystone State, where we have overlooked this industry? The head of the sheep department imported several thousand dollars worth of sheep, due to the fact that they have developed that industry in other states as we have been developing it in the last few years in this State. Let us develop this stuff at home. We expect it to cost money. It costs money to get a college education.

It costs money and where we don't put anything in we don't get anything out, and old Pennsylvania, my friends, is not afraid to spend a few dollars if the few dollars is going to make better farmers and better factories and make our people better. I am not afraid to spend money judiciously, and I am in favor of pinching every penny, but when I pinch the penny it is to save the dime. Our educational work is costing us money, of course, but I admire the efficiency of Dr. Finegan, and I believe that in the years to come Dr. Finegan will be a seer. I believe that he will take us from the rank of twenty-first place in education among the states of the Union to sixth place since we came in agriculture from sixteenth place to sixth place, and I believe that in the next five years, under the leadership of Dr. Finegan, we will be in sixth place among the states of this Union in education. I believe in developing our own State. I have travelled all over this land, south, east and west. I have travelled all over the fat lands of Illinois and all over the rich lands of Ohio and of Indiana, and of Minnesota and I come back to old Pennsylvania with a higher regard for her agricultural possibilities, if they are developed, and I think they can be developed equal to any other State in the Union—and I know what I am talking about. I have travelled over twenty-six states in the Union speaking in all those states on this subject and I have come back to old Pennsylvania feeling glad to say that we have the best old state in the Union, and if we develop it, Pennsylvania will produce as much or more than any other state in the Union. It can produce more corn, more grain, and it has the greatest steel industries in the Union. I want to see Pennsylvania also have the best schools in the Union, and as our friend from Lancaster has remarked, we ought to have sections all over the State equal to the agricultural county of Lancaster and make her the best State in the Union. I don't want to live in New England; I don't want to live in the west; I want to live in Pennsylvania. I borrowed money to pay for my college education, and I am willing to borrow a little money if necessary to pay for a State Fair, that is properly equipped, and as to the State College, I declare that it is today the poorest equipped agricultural college, as far as its agricultural equipment is concerned, of any state college I know of in this land. Let us wake up and take the coal out of the earth and use it; let us take the ore out of the soil and use it; let us raise the wheat up from out of the soil and use it; let us raise hogs as they raise them in Kansas; let us raise the grain as it is raised in Michigan. I am a tight-wad, but I tell you, I loosen up when I look up, and I want to get into the sky, and I want to keep my feet on the clouds and climb up. We don't want to look back. We want to look forward, and as my friend has said, we have "got the dough."

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lawrence.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Jordan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JORDAN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. EDMONDS. Is it intended that this commission shall purchase a site and erect buildings?

Mr. JORDAN. No, sir, not at present. We say that the $250,000 when appropriated may be used to secure a site and later when the bill is changed, it may be amended, and when it is amended we will change that wording from "purchasing" to "securing". We hope to get a site without purchasing it and are looking around a little and drawing up the plans so that they will be second to no state in the Union. And then later on get some more and still more when we begin to get the money.

Mr. EDMONDS. I would like to interrogate the gentleman further on another question. As I read that bill, it seems to me that they had a larger appropriation in mind and then when the reduction was made there was no corresponding change made in the act. I would like to know if it is not intended to buy a site for two years and to construct buildings in the name of the Commonwealth during the next two years, ought not those sections to give those powers to the commission be amended to harmonize with the reduced appropriation?

Mr. JORDAN. That would be necessary; it might be done over in the Senate and just use the money that we have at this time.

Mr. EDMONDS. Does the gentleman not think, Mr. Speaker, that it would be well that the membership of this House, who are in full sympathy with the project of the State Fair, have the amendments introduced in the House and acted upon before sending the bill to the Senate?

Mr. JORDAN. Time is so fleeting and I can assure you that our Secretary of Agriculture will do everything that is absolutely fair to make it clear and make it possible to amend the bill in the Senate.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, the point I am making is this: If it is amended now and passed by the House tomorrow it can be then sent over to the Senate and passed by the Senate in the finished form. Whreas, if it goes over to the Senate to be amended there and then comes back here again there is another delay. If there are amendments to be made, why not make them now so that it may be a complete piece of legislation?

Mr. JORDAN. We are told right here that we will save a day by amending it in the Senate. Let us get through with it.

Mr. EDMONDS. Is it fair to ask the members of this House to vote for something imperfect and in a form that is now slightly absurd. Would it not be better to get these amendments in shape at once and pass the bill as a complete piece of legislation, of which we may all be proud?

Mr. JORDAN. I see your point and it is well taken and honestly taken. But I wish to assure you that Mr. Rasmussen, the Secretary of Agriculture, who is back of this will agree to do anything that will not emasculate the bill. If we can save time I think that we had better get the bill through while we are on the level. The Deputy Secretary sitting here gives me assurance that they will do it.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I have the utmost confidence in the sincerity of the gentleman from Lawrence, and have had the privilege and pleasure of his friendship which I have enjoyed during the session, but I submit that we are not here as a reasoning body, and it seems to me that it is not in order that the members should be asked to vote for this bill in its present incomplete form. This is the way in which so many things happen that cause trouble later. I think it would be better to have it amended now before sending it over to the Senate, so that we may really express the judgment of the House. Otherwise, the bill itself really expresses nothing except sympathy and an expectation and a hope that it will be worked, eventually, into a reasonable form. It does seem to me that the burden of passing this bill in its present form ought not to be put on the members of this House.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I believe that every member of this House has confidence in the gentleman from Lawrence and when he tells this body that the amendments will be inserted in the Senate, I think you can take his word for it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's remarks are not in order. There is no question in regard to the sincerity of the gentleman from Lawrence.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, the Chair misunderstands my statement. A question was asked in regard to amending the bill in the Senate, and what I meant by my remark that this is a rather late day in the session to pass bills from one House to the other from day to day and perhaps if the bill is sent over to the Senate to have the amendments inserted there, it would save time and in view of that fact I would suggest that that should be done.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1245.

Mr. FITZGIBBON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1245 file folio 3479, entitled:

An Act fixing the number and salaries of the officers and emloyes in the Department of Mines was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I have learned that during the confusion in the House only thirty-six men voted against this bill, and I am positive that on the next roll call they will pass it. I am reliably informed by the head of the Department of Mines that this increase is nominal. There is also an increase of certain salaries which have not been increased for a period of thirty years. This bill only increases the chief of the Bureau of Mines, one of the biggest department in the State from six thousand to seven thousand five hundred dollars. In my estimation gentlemen, it is nearly time that we recognize the chief of the Bureau of Mines and put him on a par with the chiefs of other bureaus. I earnestly hope that all the members of the House will vote for the passage of this bill.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Dawson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Dawson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. EDMONDS. I would like to ask what is the total increase that is carried by the bill.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I was informed by Mr. Frank Ball, deputy chief of the Department of Mines that the total increase is $8,700. He also informs me that the salaries of the clerks who are at the present time receiving fourteen hundred dollars have been receiving this amount for the past thirty years.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 11 Such ballot or ballots and envelopes shall then be securely sealed in the third envelope which the voter shall send by registered mail to the prothonotary or county commissioners in sufficient time to reach its destination on or before the day such election is held in case the ballot was voted at the general or municipal election it shall be sent to the prothonotary if voted at a primary election it shall be sent to the county commissioners of the county in which such voter is a resident The postage and cost necessary to transmit and register such envelope shall be paid by the voter

Section 12 The prothonotary or county commissioners upon receipt of such registered letter shall safely keep and preserve the same unopened in their office until the return board canvasses the vote according to law at which time the said return board shall open such registered letter and after examining the certificate of qualification and the affidavit and jurat shall compare the signature of said absent voter as written on the affidavit with the signature of such voter on the application blank given to the county commissioners If the return board is satisfied that the signatures correspond and that the affidavit and jurat are sufficient they shall announce the name of the voter of such absent voter's ballot and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge the same in like manner and for the same causes as such voter could have been challenged had he presented himself in his own district to cast his ballot If there are no challenges they shall open the second envelope in such manner as not to destroy the certificate of qualification and the affidavit and jurat as printed thereon which envelope shall be kept in the prothonotary's or commissioners' office for a period of one year thereafter All envelopes on which are printed the words "Absent Voter's Ballot" and containing the ballots shall be put into one depository at one time and said depository well shaken and the envelopes containing the ballots mixed before any ballot is taken therefrom The return board shall then break the seals of such envelopes and record the said ballots in the same manner as the election officers record votes and in so canvassing said votes the return board shall count the votes of all absent voters taken as herein provided and add the same to the total result of the election in the county district precinct or ward accordingly as designated on each ballot

Section 13 The ballots after being opened and duly counted by the return board shall be safely kept in the custody of the prothonotary or the county commissioners as the case may be for the period of one year and in case of a contested election the same may be opened and counted as in other cases

Section 14 Any voter who has received an absent voter's ballot and who shall return to his properly designated election district on or before the day for holding the election for which such ballot was issued shall be permitted to vote upon presenting himself at his regular polling place in the same manner as he could have voted had he not received such absent voter's ballot Provided however That in any such case such voter shall surrender to the judge of election of such district his absent voter's ballot or ballots unmarked and the envelopes in which they were contained before being permitted to vote Such fact shall be noted by the judge of election on the back thereof and the ballot or ballots and envelopes shall be returned to the county commissioners

Section 15 If any person voting an absent voter's ballot shall wilfully swear falsely to the affidavit herein provided for or shall vote any ballot other than one properly issued to him or vote or attempt to more than once at any such election or who shall violate any other provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year or both at the discretion of the court

If any official authorized to administer oaths within this Commonwealth prothonotary county commissioner or member of a return board shall neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties prescribed by this act or shall reveal or divulge any of the details of any ballot cast in accordance with the provisions of this act he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars

Section 16 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Whitehouse, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Schuylkill if he does not think that an act like this would open our election machinery to fraud?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. No, sir, Mr. Speaker, I do not. This act is planned with every safeguard possible, and if anything these votes are guarded more carefully than the votes now taken.

Mr. DUNN. Does this affect your county?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. It certainly does, it affects every county.

Mr. DUNN. As I understand the act, it says "cities of the first and second class."

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. No sir, and if you will read the title carefully you will see that it only refers to the registration board where they have personal registration boards, which shall assist the commissioners in all counties.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, my own thought is that our election machinery is too complicated at the present time. Since the women have the right to vote, in our cities, the election officers have anough to do in regard to their work. This gives the privilege to vote to a man who is not home on election day. It puts an additional expense on your county for the printing for the purpose of taking care of these votes by the county commissioners, and I think the more you add to the election machinery as it is to-day, the more complicated it becomes to the election officers and the county commissioners. I hope the bill will not pass.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, this is a departure from the regular routine of elections, but it is not new by any means. My information coming from one of the newspapers is that this is now used in twenty-nine other states. I have in front of me the laws of Ohio. This bill was practically copied from the one now used in Ohio. These men are unavoidably absent from their district in which they pay their taxes, traveling men, railroad men, theatrical men and men with positions, and they are a part of the general routing of business in our country. Someone must accept these jobs, we cannot all stay at home. These men pay their taxes and they surely are entitled to the same consideration that we are in determining who shall administer their laws, who shall spend their money and who shall appoint their teachers. Now, we submit that if you have carefully read this bill you will find that we have guarded the taking of these ballots from start to finish in order that there can be no fraud one way or the other. There is no extra work on the part of anyone, on the part of the election board. The vote is canvassed finally by the canvassing board, which in a general election would be the courts or the judges of the courts, and in a primary election would be the county commissioners. The expense is very small in proportion to the amount of good it will do. Each one of these men would have to pay his carfare to be home, and in addition would have to lose his time. The ballot taking in the proportion of hundreds of thousands would cost but six-tenths of a cent for an extra ten thousand to be printed, that we should give to these men the same privileges which we have. They are entitled to their vote, and I would ask you gentlemen to pass this bill.

Mr. DUNLAP. Mr. Speaker, I feel that this is a measure which we should give due consideration. I at one time was a traveling man myself, nevertheless, I paid my taxes. I have the receipts to show for it. There are thousands of men in this State whose business takes them periodically away from their place of residence. As the previous speaker said twenty-six other states provide this method whereby these citizens may exercise their right of franchise. I believe it is our duty to make it available to these gentlemen that they may cast their ballots. This bill provides due safeguards to the secrecy of the ballot. In addition to the traveling men which this will take care of, there are numerous employees in the State and federal governments who maintain a residence in our State, and which are now required to pay railroad fare and other expenses to come back home at the proper time to cast their ballot for the purpose of voting. I think this is a logical, progressive piece of legislation, and I would like to see it pass.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1066, entitled:

An Act to fix the number of Senators in the General Assembly of the State to apportion the State into Senatorial districts provided by the Constitution and to regulate the election of and the terms of office of the present and future elected Senators

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr DAVIS. Mr. President, this bill, Senate Bill No. 1066, is an act to fix the number of Senators in the General Assembly of the state, to apportion the state into Senatorial Districts provided by the Constitution. The county which I have the honor to represent has a population of two hundred and eighty-six thousand. For more than ten years we are entitled to two Senators. This bill provides nothing for my Senatorial District other than what we have. Later in the session we will be asked to vote for a bill to tax anthracite coal. That will be all right, but I want to say to the members of the Senate that to tax anthracite coal and give us no representation seems to be a miscarriage. You no doubt know, as well as I know, that some of the smaller districts would be eliminated if we were to amend this bill creating another Senatorial District for the twenty-second Senatorial District, which comprises Lackawanna County, but I think it is unfair to the people of northeastern Pennsylvania in not giving them the proper representation. I am not accusing any person of the framing of this bill, but I have had some assurance that if I would allow this bill to go over into the House, that it may be amended allowing us another Senator. It is high time that the Senate of Pennsylvania recognizes this great portion of the state. The citizens of northeastern Pennsylvania supply the treasury of the State with considerable money and if we are to be taxed wthout representation, no doubt, the people up there are going to resent it. I am sorry that it is necessary for me to take the floor on this important measure this morning. It has been more than ten years since we have had a reapportionment of Senatorial Districts. I do not want to retard the work of this legislature, but I want to serve notice on you that I am going to attempt to have this bill amended in the House, so that the districts that are entitled to representation shall have it.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Lackawanna what the population of his county is?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, the population of our county is two hundred and eighty-six thousand.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I want to say to the Senator that we have a Senatorial District with three hundred and fifty-nine thousand and are not saying a word.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, the city of Philadelphia, at the present time, has eight Senators and that is what the Constitution allows them, and the Constitution does allow Lackawanna County two Senators. I have no brief to hold for any other county than my own. Of course, I would gladly see the city of Philadelphia get ten Senators if the Constitution would so provide, but the Constitution does provide that Lackawanna County is entitled to two Senators. I think we have seven thousand citizens more than necessary for another Senator.

Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act to amend section five of article twenty of an act entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth" approved the twenty-fifth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nineteen

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 1328 is an amendment to the Philadelphia City Charter. The Mayor of Philadelphia as you know, sent a series of bills up here, introduced by Senator McNichol, which have been postponed on the motion of Senator Aron. Now Senator Aron brings a bill in to amend the city charter and this bill was introduced exactly thirty-eight hours ago, has been through the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation, and is now on third reading. I contend that an amendment to the city charter, which required bloody sweat to get through this legislature, should have more consideration than thirty-eight hours. That is too little consideration to amend a city charter. I am not going to ask for a hearing or anything of that sort, but I appeal to the Senate to support me in the motion to postpone this bill indefinitely.

MOTION TO POSTPONE INDEFINITELY.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed indefinitely.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. ARON. Mr President, I hope that this motion will not prevail. This bill does not materially change the present law, and I am very anxious to have this bill taken up for immediate consideration, because, as you all know, it is drawing very near to the close of the session. I hope you will not support his motion.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, this amendment, in just one word, changes the city charter as it stands now, which we all voted for, including myself, and I did not ask a single Senator to vote against it two years ago. Notwithstanding the fact that it affects some of my business interests, I did not ask for a single vote against it, but in that charter there is a joker, and it is spelled m-a-y-; the city may do this or may do that. I read Mr. Aron's bill the first time this morning and the bill stands exactly as it did before, except it says before August—first of each year—instead of saying may advertise for bids, the may is changed to the word "shall" as to what they must do. This bill says the city shall advertise and find out the value of this work and then determine later whether it shall be done by the city itself or shall be done by contract. I hate to interfere in this matter, because I do a part of the work down there, and it did not interest me enough to discuss this, or even ask a single Senator to vote one way or the other, but inasmuch as the Senator from Philadelphia, with all his reform and independent tendencies, took the trouble to come here all the way from Germantown today to make believe something was being put over. I would like him to explain just what is wrong with the word "shall" in place of the word "may".

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, there is an old proverb that says, "Beware of Greek bearing gifts." I did not understand the bill. I also see the bill has not been through the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation. I am, therefor, opposed to the bill being passed in thirty-eight hours.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, that is no explanation for opposing the bill at this late date. The bill in two parts says "shall" instead of "may" and it is only for the purpose of making the bill read exactly what it means, the word shall was put in there. It does not mean the city shall contract to do its work, it does not mean that it shall do the work itself, but it means the city shall do one thing or the other with the approval of the councils as well as the Mayor, but the word "may", the joker, in the bill, from the start, is taken out, and the joker belongs to the independent and not to Mr. Aron.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to announce, for the information of the Senate, that the records show that the bill was reported from the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation by the Senator from Clearfield, Mr. Miller.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion

A division being called for, one Senator voted "Aye", twenty-six Senators voted "Nay", whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 997, (House Bill No. 1237), the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, may I interrogate the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, I would like to ask if this is the apportionment act?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, it is. The sponsor of the bill in the House sent over a lot of proposed amendments to the bill. Nobody can understand them, in my judgment, unless they had an opportunity of sitting down in committee and reading them in connection with the bill. It seems to me it would be much more orderly procedure, after reading the bill the second time, to send it back to the committee so that we might sit down and have an opportunity of seeing just what the amendments are.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?
The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, April 21, 1921.

The House met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

Hon. Lorenzo D. Thomas, Representative from Luzerne county, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in Heaven, we thank Thee for the privilege of again leading this body of men into Thy immediate presence, and we would earnestly ask Thee that we regard it as an honor conferred upon us to-day that should be highly esteemed, that we can come to the throne of grace and find it to be the mercy seat.

We believe, Father, that we need Thy guidance and we believe that Thou standest ready to give unto us the necessary direction. Help us, then, in our deliberations of this day and through the remainder of this session to be deeply conscious of the duty devolved upon us as the representatives of a sovereign people. Keep us, then, free from all animus and enable us to be governed by the kindest regard for the feelings of our fellows and for the earnest consideration of our dear ones who are looking to us in this hour of the stressful condition over our Commonwealth, for Christ's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

Mr. SOWERS, from the Committee on Judiciary Local, reported as committed House Bill No. 1139, (Senate Bill No. 323), entitled:

An Act concerning conditional sales and to make uniform the law relating thereto

RESOLUTION FIXING THE ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Mr. HESS offered a resolution which was read as follows:

Resolved, That after twelve o'clock today, the order of business shall be House Bills first for the balance of the week

A. B. HESS, Chairman
GEO. W. WILLIAMS
HUGH A. DAWSON
JOHN M. FLYNN
DUNCAN SINCLAIR

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, just a word by way of explanation of this resolution. The resolution reads that after twelve o'clock to-day, the order of business shall be House bills first for the balance of the week, which means that no Senate bills will be considered until the House bills have been disposed of. You gentlemen all know that House bills not disposed of this week will have no opportunity for passage next week, while Senate bills will have the opportunity next week, and for that reason I think this resolution should be adopted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RESOLUTION RECALLING SENATE BILL NO. 834 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. ALEXANDER offered a resolution which was read as follows:

Concurrent Resolution recalling Senate Bill No. 834, File Folio 2127, from the Governor for further consideration

Be it Resolved (if the Senate concur) That Senate Bill No. 834, File Folio 2127, entitled "An act authorizing the Governor to appoint a Board of Claims to hear audit dimiss or adjust moral and equitable claims against the Commonwealth arising from the execution of certain contracts for the construction and reconstruction of highways and making an appropriation," be recalled from the Governor for further consideration

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, so that the House will understand this resolution and the purpose of it, I want to explain it. If you remember, House Bill No. 1184 passed this House a week ago and came back from the Senate. This bill, I might say, is what is known as the moral claim act. It came back from the Senate considerably changed and amended. This House non-concurred in the amendments of the Senate. In all probability a committee of conference will be appointed with the Senate to go over that bill. Now, Senate Bill No. 834 was passed by this House and it is now in the hands of the Governor. The thought of some of us is that as it is a companion bill, almost identical with No. 1184, that they both should be kept together and take the same course, whatever the course of 1184 is.

This is not for the purpose of making any change in the bill, but simply to consider them both together to see whether it is proper to make any changes in them.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not think the House should adopt this resolution at this time. It was a bill that was passed by an almost unanimous vote in the House a week ago, and is almost an exact copy of the bill which originated in the House.

The SPEAKER. This being a Senate bill, the House cannot entertain a resolution to recall a bill which is a Senate bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. But, Mr Speaker, this is a concurrent resolution.

The SPEAKER. If the Governor returns the bill at all, he would return it through the Senate where it originated. The Chair does not wish to be discourteous but would rule that the resolution is not a regular one and not in order at this time.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr Speaker, under the circumstances, I will withdraw my resolution.

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 642 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. W. W. JONES offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 21, 1921

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 642, file folio 2841, entitled "An act to further amend section two of the act approved the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six (Pamphlet Laws sixty-three) entitled 'An act to provide for the personal registration of electors in cities of the third class of this Commonwealth to make such registration a condition of the right to vote in such cities and to provide penalties for violation of its provisions' " as amended be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1687, (Senate Bill No. 882), entitled:

An Act to empower the Public Service Commission to require railroad corporations to employ an adequate number of men upon trains and to repeal an act approved the nineteenth day of June nineteen hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws ten hundred and fifty-three) entitled "An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains"

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Public Service Commission created by the Public Service Company Law approved July twenty-sixth one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws thirteen hundred and seventy-four) shall have power after hearing upon notice by order in writing to require any railroad corporation as defined in the Public Service Company Law to employ such number of men upon any of its trains as in the judgment of the commission is requisite for the safe and efficient operation thereof and any such order shall be enforceable and reviewable in the same manner as prescribed by such Public Service Company Law and the amendments thereto in respect to orders of the commission made thereunder and all acts inconsistent herewith are here by repealed including the act of June nineteenth one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws ten hundred and fifty-three) entitled "An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 12, by inserting after the word "trains" the following:

"Provided no reduction shall be made by any railroad, because of the passage of this act, in any train crew as constituted by law prior to the passage of this act, without the authorization of the Public Service Commission after hearing."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, this is what is known as the Full Crew Act. The act provides that the "Public Service Commission shall have power after hearing upon notice by order in writing to require any railroad corporation as defined in the Public Service company law to employ such number of men upon any of its trains is in the judgment of the commission is requisite for the safe and efficient operation thereof and any such order shall be enforceable and reviewable in the same manner as prescribed by such Public Service Company Law and the amendments thereto in respect to orders of the commission made thereunder and all acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed including the act of June nineteenth one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws ten hundred and fifty-three) entitled "An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains."

My thought and the thought of a number of other people to whom I have spoken in this House who, like myself, is that I have always been opposed to many of these regulations that the Legislature has heretofore put upon railroads. At the same time this Legislature, in the session of 1911, in order to promote the safety of travellers and employes, saw fit to pass at that time what is known as the Full Crew Bill and the trains were manned in accordance with that purpose. This act that is presented here, Senate Bill No. 882, is known as the Full Crew Repealer, and provides without and notice or anything else that they can throw out of employment some seventeen hundred to twenty-three hundred men who are manning these trains under the Act of Assembly of 1911. I want to vote for this repealer but I want it known that as the Legislature heretofore has already said that it was necessary for the promotion of the welfare and safety of travellers, that the burden shall go to the railroad to show to the Public Service Commission that it is unnecessary to have those men on those trains. If I had been here in 1911 I would have voted against the full crew bill and I would have left the railroads to control their own business, but at this time when the conditions are as they are; when at this time the railroads are endeavoring to get agreements with their employes; when they are hand in hand at the present time in these agreements endeavoring to help each other, as they should do, and when men are out of employment as they are, I think it is not more than fair after this House saying in 1911 that it was necessary for the safety of travellers and employes that this law be passed—I think it is no more than fair, now, at this time, that these railroads should go into the Public Service Commission and should be the first mover and ask that the Public Service Commission review this proposition. I want to vote for this repealer, for this bill but not as it is; I would not vote for it unless the amendment is put in; and if it is put in, I believe and a number of others believe, that it should be passed and I will then ask the gentlemen of this House to vote for the repealer.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the amendment be again read.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1 page 2 line 12 by inserting after the word "trains" the following "Provided no reduction shall be made by any railroad because of the passage of this act in any train crew as constituted by law prior to the passage of this act without the authorization of the Public Service Commission after hearing"

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr Alexander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if the Public Service Commission knows more about conditions than this body in reference to the number of men that is required?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think the Public Service Commission will know more after they hear both sides.

Mr. MANGAN. I desire further to interrogate the gentleman. Does he know that trains running underground or overhead are equipped with at least one man for every car.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In 1911 the Legislature passed an act that that should be done; but before that was changed, that was after a full hearing by both Houses. However, I am not satisfied that at the present time these employes should be automatically ripped out of place without a further hearing by the Public Service Commission, whose duty it is and should be to determine this question.

Mr. MANGAN. Are you aware of the fact that this bill went into effect in 1911 and that when it did instead of increasing the force of railroadmen that they have decreased it?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I am not aware of that.

Mr. MANGAN. When the bill was passed in 1911 almost every train was equipped or manned with four men upon every train; both in yard and road service and when this bill became effective there were only four or five men on a train and in the yards they reduced the number to three; are you aware of that?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I am not. I want the railroads to show the Public Service Commission that it is necessary to have that number at that time.

Mr. MANGAN. I want to get behind the movement back of this amendment and find out who is opposed to the Full Crew Bill. You are willing to place it before the Public Service Commission, I understand, if this amendment is adopted?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I am not opposed to the Full Crew bill repealer if this amendment is put in so that there can be a hearing before the Public Service Commission.

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, that does not make any change whatsoever to my mind in the bill, that amendment.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I might add further that that amendment which I have asked to have written into this bill is the exact wording of the repeal of the full crew bill of the New Jersey act. Therefore it is not new with me but it has been in force in New Jersey ever since 1917.

Mr. MANGAN. Mr. Speaker, I am not speaking from theory nor from coercion nor from the lobbyists that are here to-day for this bill. I am speaking from the practical standpoint of twenty-five years service as a yard man, conductor, brakeman and yardmaster. I have seen men lose their limbs and their lives for want of men on the trains; I have seen the public run over for the want of more men on the trains than there are at the present time. In 1895 I started my service as yard brakeman, and the cars were like sardine cans in comparison with the trains we have to-day. At that time we had four men upon each and every crew. The railroad companies did not object at that time to the four men, as it was for the safety of themselves as well as for the safety of the public. The times have not changed only in connection with the railroad company. The men have not grown any bigger, and there is no one man can run one car and ride it without a great big limb of a tree that he has to swing his strength upon. When I was a brakeman a man could with nimble hands and a pair of gloves man these cars and ride and stop them on any kind of a grade regardless of the heighth. To-day a man must have a limb of a tree in his arms to man those trains and stop them for the safety of himself and the men working him as well as the public. Now let me tell you the only argument that they have to-day is in the passenger service. They will tell you that four men is too many men upon one of those trains. I want to ask each and every one of you gentlemen that travel every week over these roads when you stop in any town where is that crew. I will show you. The front brakeman is up next to the engine, and is ready to go that way in case anything happens and flag that train, the middleman is always with the conductor. There is not a man in this Hall cannot verify what I say. The conductor has a lot of clerical work to do and he requires that middleman to be with him at all times until that train stops and then the middleman goes to the rear end and takes the place of the flagman. The train may stop over a crossing and that middleman must go under the train, a big fat man like I could not do it any more, you must be a little wee thin fellow, he goes under there and cuts the air hose and cuts the train to let the public pass over that crossing. That is the only argument that the railroad companies to-day place before you,—in the passenger service. It required four men twenty-five years ago on those passenger trains when they hauled but four or five or six cars. To-day you will see them with three and four engines and with twenty and twenty-five cars with the same number of men. The railroad men are not asking you for anything that they did not have all their lives. They have not asked you to regulate their wages, they have not asked you to regulate anything with the exception of their working hours, and that God knows is just. They work a longer time than in any other branch of labor in the State of Pennsylvania and then there is what is known as the Adamson Law, sixteen hours. They are working that, they have worked that and they are working that to-day wherever it is required, they are going out and working sixteen hours every day when the industries are busy. You cannot get men to work in their places. There are only two other occupations more dangerous in the world, I am not saying the United States but in the world, and they are bell diving and balloon ascension, and anybody that takes those jobs is crazier than a railroad man. I have seen gentlemen, in my twenty-five years service hundreds of unfortunates that were killed or maimed. I could take a car and load it with the limbs of the men that lost their limbs who worked with me. I ask you to vote down this amendment and furthermore, I would like to see this bill dropped from the calendar.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, just a moment with the attention of the House. This amendment is not approved by the gentleman from Allegheny who speaks on behalf of the railroad men. I think he has shown from the railroad trainman's standpoint the futility of the amendment. Furthermore it only jumbles up the law as we have it to-day and if this thought as provided for in the amendment is carried to its logical conclusion no employer could ever discharge an employee without going to some board and asking that board to consent. It seems to me to be an amendment that will upset the entire law of labor of employer and employee and I therefore would suggest that the amendment be voted down.

Mr. OGLE. The act as it was originally passed in 1911 was entitled "An act to promote the safety of travelers and employees upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains," which I consider was a misnomer. That is a very catchy title, "To promote the safety of travelers and employees." If it had been entitled an act to increase the number of men to be employed by the railroad company it might have received its proper designation. The argument that was made here by the gentleman from Allegheny and the proponents of this amendment is to the effect that the times are the same, but they are not. When the gentleman from Allegheny started to work trains were handled by hand brakes. We have advanced so in the science and art of the management of trains by the introduction of the air and safety valves, that now the train can be handled almost entirely by one man, the engineer, and the train, by the simple operation of the air, can be stopped in the shortest possible distance. Times have changed; improvements have been made. Now then, Mr. Speaker, in 1911, when this act was passed, there wasn't any proposition made to place the burden of proof upon the laboring man to show that there was a necessity for his employment upon the trains. The man was placed there whether or no. I have been spoken to on the side by the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, who says that I am a little out of order, and I will therefore conclude what I have to say by asking that this amendment be voted down. I desire to answer more fully, as opportunity may offer, the argument made by the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I want to say that I hold no briefs for either the train crews or the railroad men. I am not employed by either, I do not represent the Baltimore and Ohio or any other company, I am not the attorney for any company. I understand the gentleman from Somerset is employed as solicitor for one of the railroad companies. I have no brief for either, I am only looking at this matter as a matter of equity, justice and fair play between both parties. I cannot see why there should be any objection under the sun, when the Public Service Commission is asked to pass on this question and to decide whether or not it is necessary, whether the Public Service Commission should do it before the change was made or whether it should do it after the change was made. Isn't it fairer all the way round that the matter should be left statu quo, that is, everything standing as it is, and remaining so until the Public Service Commission has heard both sides of the question and decided it as to equity and justice.

That is the only thing I can see to it, and the only interest I have in it. I am particularly endeavoring to see fair play meted out to both parties, without any interest, pecuniary or otherwise, outside of that.

Mr. WOODRUFF. Mr. Speaker, I agree that there are some burdens on the railroads under the old Full Crew Law, but I do not see why the burden of proof should be shifted over to the railroad man. I agree that this amendment ought to be adopted in order to enable us to vote as men, without being charged with having shifted the burden of proof on labor. Besides that, if the Public Service Commission is to be a court, to sit in judgment, if this commission is to do that, why should it not sit in judgment in the beginning and at once determine whether or not a certain number of men are needed to man the trains. I believe the amendmnt at this time should be adopted.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I agree at this time with the gentleman from Snyder. It seems to me that this is not a question of either the railroad men or the railroads. We are here representing the people of the Commonwealth. In 1911, the people of the Commonwealth passed through this Legislature an act said to be an act for safety. We are now proposing to let down some of the bars. It is right they should be. If it leads to the employment of unnecessary men then the Public Service Commission can render an opinion and then the change can be made. It seems to me that this is not in accordance with equity, and the purpose of the amendment should be proven. This amendment is in the exact language of the New Jersey statute, and there we have a precedent. If it does work, if the change is proven to have worked, then it is made only in accordance with precedent.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that a bill identical with the bill now under consideration was agreed to by this House on second reading this morning. I refer to House Bill No. 1416, file folio 6391.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, the bill the gentleman refers to was this morning passed over by the Chair, the same not being on the files. It is the Full Crew Bill introduced into the House, and was not on the files and the Chair passed over it. It could not pass on second reading because it was not on the files.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker, I was temporarily absent from the House when the second reading calendar was first taken up, and I was incorrectly informed when I came back to the House. I was informed that House Bill No. 1416 had been passed on second reading. I therefore withdraw my point of order now and call for the order of the day, which is the consideration of House Bills after 12 o'clock noon, for the balance of the week.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dithrich, calls for the order of the day. The order of the day is House Bills after 12 o'clock noon.

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. McMULLEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1416, file folio 6391, entitled:

An Act to empower the Public Service Commission to require railroad corporations to employ an adequate number of men upon trains and to repeal an act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws ten hundred and fifty-three) entitled "An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains" on page 4 of to-day's calendar, be dropped from the calendar.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. JEFFERSON SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. JEFFERSON SMITH. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that as the bill was not on the files this morning, it could not be passed on second reading. I did not call the bill up for consideration when it was reached on the calendar.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will sustain the point of order raised by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. ROMAN asked and received unanimous consent to call up from page 10 of to-day's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 1200, File Folio No. 4607.

Agreeably to order.

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Roman,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1200, entitled:

An Act relating to hotels and restaurants providing for the licensing and regulation thereof and imposing penalties

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. ROMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. JOSEPH MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ROMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 3, by inserting after the word "act" in line 29, on page 2, the words "Such inspectors not to exceed twenty in number"

Amend section 6 by striking out at the end of line 13 on page 4 the words "all such" and striking out in line 14 on page 4 the words "fees shall be paid into the State Treasury" and inserting in lieu thereof the following

"The Department of Health shall pay all the necessary expenses incurred in carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, out of such license fees so paid to the Department and pay any unexpended balance thereof into the State Treasury."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

Mr. JOSEPH MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 10 page 6 line 12 by striking out the word "or" and by adding after the word "linen" the words "or paper" and by striking out the words "and shall" and by striking out on line 13 the words "be of a size not less than twelve inches by twelve inches"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 254, as follows:

An act to amend an act approved the sixth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and forty-seven) entitled "An act requiring all counties cities boroughs townships school districts and other municipalities and incorporated districts to sell any bonds or other securities issued by them to the highest responsible bidder after due public notice" making the provisions of the act also applicable to poor districts regulating the publication of such notices and the manner of receiving opening and announcing bids providing for statement as to publication et cetera to be filed by the chief officers of any such municipality in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions one week before issue or delivery of any such bond obligation or security providing penalty for failure so to do and providing that securities sold in violation of the act shall be void

Miller, C.,

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time, from page 49 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, House Bill No. 1359, File Folio 3799.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Phillips,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1359, entitled:

An Act authorizing certain heads of departments of the State Government to increase the compensation of employes and prescribing a limit to said increase

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield on this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Phillips, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. EDMONDS. Is it intended that there should be a definite appropriation for that purpose, for an estimated amount?

Mr. PHILLIPS. There is no estimate made for any definite amount.

Mr. EDMONDS. Is it intended that there should be an appropriation for $100,000 or $200,000, more or less and that it will be in the General Appropriation bill?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I thought we had gone the limit on these salary raisers, but this one is away over the top. We have had bills here giving the heads of different departments, power to appoint whom they pleased, as many as they pleased and fix their salaries at what they please, but here is a bill that is giving everybody twenty per cent. over what he is receiving at the present time, provided there is not an increase of over $2,000.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. EDMONDS. As I read this bill, the maximum compensation shall in no case exceed the sum of $2,000 after the increase is given; it refers only to those who are receiving under $1,800 the increase being twenty per cent. and the maximum must not be over $2,000 as a salary if they get the increase. Do you not understand it that way?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I wish to ask the gentleman from Clearfield in regard to this increase. I may have read this bill wrong. Does the gentleman from Clearfield understand that under the provisions of this act in no case shall the salary after an increase of twenty per cent. exceed $2,000 a year?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Yes, sir, the bill so provides that it cannot exceed two thousand dollars.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I evidently misconstrued this act. Perhaps as we have taken care of those who have been higher up we may help the little fellow some and I withdraw my objection to this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—3.

Dewey, P. H.,	Hampson,	Harding,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up, from page 49 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, House Bill No. 1054, File Folio 3607.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Dawson,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1054, entitled:

An Act to amend article nine of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven

(Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended creating a State Council of Education defining its powers and duties and transferring thereto the powers and duties now vested in the State Board of Education

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

TIME OF MEETING AND ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House: I would ask that the House this afternoon in the transaction of its business, when we come to six o'clock take a recess until seven o'clock; reconvene at seven, and adjourn to-night at nine o'clock, as this is a special occasion for the newspaper writers who are to have a dinner. All during the session these men have worked up until the late hours of the night, and this is the only request that they ever make from this House. I would ask therefore, that we work until six o'clock, recess and reconvene at seven, and adjourn to-night at nine.

The SPEAKER. The Chair endorses exactly what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McCaig has said. The newspaper men have been more than faithful during the entire session. They never have any request to make of this House. This evening they are to have an entertainment and they have assured the Chair and a great many of the members of this House that in the event the House should not adjourn they would have to be here which would mean that the entertainment which they have been looking forward to for the whole year would be destroyed. The Chair endorses what the gentlman from Allegheny, Mr. McCaig, has said, and if there is no objection the House will govern itself in accordance with the request of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McCaig.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 601, entitled:

"An Act relating to police pension funds in cities of the third class and directing such cities to appropriate certain moneys thereto"

WM. C. SPROUL.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1060.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 20, 1921.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlmen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1060, entitled "An Act providing for the granting of licenses to practice dentistry to certain persons who served in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States, or any branch or unit thereof."

This bill provides for the granting of licenses to practice dentistry to persons who served as dentists in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States Any adult person of good moral character who graduated from a reputable dental school or college and served as a dentist during the late war may apply for a license and the license must be issued by the Dental Council without any examination.

As the bill was originally introduced it left the granting of licenses to such persons optional with the Dental Council and it required that the applicant should have passed the examination required by the Army Dental Examining Board. The bill in its present form makes the issuance of the license mandatory and omits the requirement that the applicant shall have passed the Army examination. In my opinion this bill is wrong in principle. It treats a license to practice dentistry as a privilege conferred or a bounty given by the State to an individual. Because of the military service rendered by the applicant he is given such license or privilege without any examination by the Dental Council into his qualifications. Our laws requiring the licensing of dentists are not designed to confer privileges, but to protect the public health by preventing unqualified persons from practicing this profession. It is proper for the State to recognize the valuable services rendered by our soldiers during the late war, but such recognition should not be given at the expense of the public who may be treated by unskillful and unqualified dentists.

More than eighteen months have now passed since the major part of the army engaged in the late war was mustered out. The dentists who were properly qualified to practice their profession and who were not previously licensed have been examined and licensed during this period, and I am advised by ex-service men engaged in this profession that this bill would simply operate to open the doors of their profession to a number of applicants who are not properly qualified and who should not be permitted to practice in this State.

The members of the Dental Council consider it an unwise piece of legislation, and protests against it have come from reputable dentists throughout the State.

During the session of 1919, four bills were passed similar to the one under consideration and were vetoed. They are found in the volume of vetoes by the Governor at page 56 (relating to the practice of law); at page 97 (relating to the practice of law); at page 98 (relating to the practice of dentistry) and at page 182 (relating to the practice of medicine). The first of these veto messages (page 57) contains the following:

"While I am in favor of giving preference wherever possible to honorably discharged soldiers sailors and marines I am not in favor of lowerng the standard of the learned professions by giving such preferences"

For these reasons I cannot approve this bill.

WM. C. SPROUL

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law the veto of the Governor notwithstanding?

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 606.

A Supplement to an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and eleven) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and government of street railway companies in this Commonwealth" authorizing street railway companies to operate vehicles without the use of rails or tracks by electricity distributed by overhead wires

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend the title, line 5, by striking out the following: "And traction motor or motor power companies authorized by law to lease and operate street railway companies".

Amend section 1, page 1, line 5, by striking out "or incorporated under any special": amend section 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out the following "or general law of this Commonwealth and traction motor or motor power companies authorized by law to lease and operate street railway companies"; also in line 5 by striking out the words "in addition to existing facilities of said companies".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, there is some question in the minds of certain people, and I am not sure that they are not correct, whether this act does not take away certain powers of the Public Service Commission, which was never intended to be done by the act. It seems to me also that as far as the act is concerned, parts have been taken out which perhaps have not had the consideration or the attention of the members called to it. In order that we might look into the matter a little more fully, as it is a pretty broad question, I move that the House non-concur in these amendments.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I hope the House will not vote for this motion for this reason: There are many bills that come over from the Senate in which amendments are made, and it is only in fairness to the sponsor of the bill that they be allowed to state whether they are satisfied with the amendments made by the Senate. I do not think it behooves any member, not the sponsor of the bill, to move to non-concur. I have no interest in the bill one way or the other, but I think it is due from the members to the sponsors that they be given an opportunity to say whether they are satisfied or not.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think it is due to the House to know whether or not we have done anything that we should not have done. When the question is as serious as this might appear to be, there may be nothing in it. I have no interest in it except to see that by our action due consideration is given to ourselves. This purports to set forth a title, and then part of the title has been cut out. We are garbling this legislation to say the least by this sort of legislation. I think the House is entitled to have its sensible views considered at least, and I think the sponsor of the bill, in a matter of importance such as this, would do the same thing if his attention was called to it.

This is not defeating the bill, this is only looking into a matter that may be serious. There may be nothing serious about it, and it may be that we will find it the right and proper thing to do after the matter has been gone into. I cannot understand why the gentleman from Philadelphia, who is a lawyer, wants anything to pass here that will reflect upon the intelligence at least of the lawyers in this body. That is my reason here at this time, to see that there is no reflection upon us but that these bills are in proper shape and form and are proper to be carried out.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed that the bill is in proper construction, that the words stricken out in the title are also stricken out in the body of the bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. If that is so, then I will withdraw that objection to it. But if you will notice, this bill provides, and I want to call your attention to this, it was only brought to my attention and I have not looked into it,—this bill provides that the consent of local authorities shall be obtained prior to the operation of vehicles within the limits of any city, borough or township. It seems to me it is also their duty to get permission from the Public Service Commission. It seems to me that it is irregular that we should take from the Public Service Commission the duty of giving them its consent. That is one of the things that has been called to my attention. I think the matter is too serious to be passed over offhand.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, the reason I made those remarks is because of the fact that at previous sessions, as I recall it, when the bills came back from the Senate at the closing hours of the session that the sponsor of any particular legislation would be notified of the amendment in the Senate and then he on the floor would either state that they were satisfied with the amendment or opposed to them. That is my proposition. The sponsor of the bill is here, and I think that it is no more than right that he should state his position on the bill.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been discussed at considerable length, and from discussion I have not yet learned what it contains, and I want to get an understanding of this bill. I don't think that you can get a better understanding of the bill by any other way than to have it read. It is short and to the point. The first section as amended reads as follows:

"That electric street railway companies incorporated under the act to which this is a supplement are hereby authorize to operate vehicles without the use of rails or tracks by electricity distributed by overhead wires provided that the consent of local authorities shall be obtained prior to the operation of said vehicles within the limits of any city borough or township"

That is all there is to it. I have no interest in the bill whatever, but I think it is only fair to the bill that the sponsor should answer the question that is before the House so that the House can have a proper conception of the bill.

Mr. J. REED CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, the amendments are entirely satisfactory to the sponsor of the bill. It was done through the conference that was held over there a few days ago and the bill protects the public in every way, because you must first obtain the consent of the local authorities before any action can be taken by the electric street railways. They would have to obtain the consent of the commission which gauges their powers and gives them the right to occupy any street or public highway in this Commonwealth.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Lancaster has not read the second section, which reads as follows:

"All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed"

Does that repeal that section of the public service act which provides that they must get the right before they can operate these cars? That is the main question, a point that perhaps has not been taken up. I have no interest in it and am not opposed to it, and all I want to see is that it is in proper form. That is the only way to do it: Get a check on it then thrash the matter out between the Senate and the House and find out whether it is correct. It is not with any disrespect intended to the sponsor of the bill that I do it. I hope to help him with his bill as much as he would help me in any of my bills.

On the question recurring.

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 1243.

An Act to further amend section twenty of an act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-four) entitled "An act providing for the original location laying out and construction of public roads or highways in the several counties of this Commonwealth and for the permanent improvement of certain public roads or highways therein making such originally constructed or improved roads and highways county roads authorizing the relocation opening straightening widening extension and alteration of the same and the vacation of so much of any road as may thereby become unnecessary providing that the county commissioners of any county may prescribe rules regulating the use of roads constructed or maintained by the various counties and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing for the taking of property for such improvement the compensation to be paid therefor and the payment of damages resulting from such taking and the manner in which such damages may be determined providing for the payment of the costs and expenses of such construction or improvement and in thereafter repairing and maintaining said roads authorizing the levy of a tax or the issuing of bonds to provide a fund for the expense thereof prescribing a method for improving a county road lying within or traversing a borough and apportioning the cost of such improvement and authorizing the vacation of any county road" as amended providing for the vacation of abandoned or condemned turnpikes

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 4, line 16, by striking out the word "roads" and inserting the word "road".

Amend section 1, page 5, line 26, by striking out lines 26, 27 and 28 as follows:

Provided that no one portion of any condemned or abandoned or purchased turnpike vacated under this act shall exceed a half mile in length

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 527.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 20, 1921.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 527, entitled "An act giving to persons who furnish storage, supplies, accessories, materials and parts for motor vehicles and labor and work thereon, a lien on such motor vehicles and providing for the enforcement of said lien."

Under existing law one having the possession but not the ownership of a piece of personal property can by placing it in the possession of another, subject it to a lien for storage or for the value of work and labor done upon it

This bill would extend the right to such a lien to cases in which the motor vehicle was not in the possession of the person furnishing supplies, accessories and materials. This would constitute a clear violation of Article III, Section 7, of our present Constitution which declares "The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law authorizing the creation, extension or impairing of liens, * * * or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts." It is plain that the Legislature has undertaken in this bill to create a lien which did not theretofore exist, and has provided a remedy for a collection of a debt theretofore unknown to the law. The bill selects persons who furnish supplies, accessories, materials and parts for a motor vehicle and undertakes to make them the object of its fostering care. That this may not be done in Pennsylvania is too well settled to require the citation of the decisions of our Apellate Courts.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1273, as follows:

An Act fixing the salaries of the county treasurers in counties of the fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and providing that such salaries shall be in lieu of all commissions and fees

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in counties of the fifth class the county treasurer shall receive a salary of four thousand five hundred dollars per annum

In counties of the sixth class the county treasurer shall receive a salary of four thousand dollars per annum

In counties of the seventh class the county treasurer shall receive a salary of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum

In counties of the eighth class the county treasurer shall receive a salary of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum

Section 2 The salaries of the county treasurers in said counties shall be paid in monthly installments out of the moneys in the treasury of the county by the county treasurer upon warrants drawn by the county commissioners

Section 3 The salaries herein provided shall be in lieu of all fees and commissions received by the county treasurers and shall be in full compensation for all their services

All fees fixed by law to be paid to county treasurers for service rendered by them shall be collected as provided by law and shall be paid into the county treasury (except where required to be paid to the State) for the use of the county

Section 4 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. PHILIP H. DEWEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. McHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 858, entitled:

An Act designating the city treasurer of cities of the third class as the collector of city school poor and county taxes fixing his compensation for collecting such taxes providing for the payment of all fees and commissions for the collection thereof into the city treasury and providing for the appointment and compensation of assistants and clerks in the office of the city treasurer

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?
